

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2065

Yun Chujiu was anxiously waiting. When she sent her divine sense in, she heard di Beiming's hoarse voice. He could not help but cry out loud.

This guy was not touched, but he was afraid. At that moment, she really thought that she would never see di Beiming again. She did not want to experience this feeling again.

An Feng's nose was also sore. He secretly made up his mind to increase his spiritual power as soon as possible and think of a way to help her.

Yun chujiu wiped her tears, picked up the voice transmission talisman and said, "Prince Charming, you really make me angry! Didn't I repeatedly tell you to open the wooden box when you were seriously injured last time? Do you remember now?"

Di Beiming raised his head and closed his eyes. After a while, he said, "Yes, I remember. Little Jiu, wait for me. I will solve the problem as soon as possible, and I will never leave you again."

Yun chujiu heard di Beiming's words, her heart was sour and sweet. "Prince Charming, you must take care of yourself. Don't worry, I will never be lazy in the future. I will definitely become stronger as soon as possible. If anyone bullies you, I will beat them to death!"

Di beiming and Yun chujia chatted for a while longer. An Feng naturally could not stand by the side and waited in the courtyard sensibly.

The Love was long and the paper was short. The two of them seemed to have a lot to talk about. Yun chujia finally reluctantly put away the voice transmission talisman. Only then did she remember an Feng who was outside.

“Little Lunatic, I am really too weak now. I will propose to the Old Fox to go out for the trial tomorrow. I definitely can’t go to the fallen Phoenix Forest. I heard that there is a thousand feet mountain more than a thousand miles away from Fengli City. Let’s go there for the trial,”Yun Chujia said to an Feng.

An Feng naturally had no objections. The two of them discussed the details before an Feng turned around and left.

Yun chujia did not wake Mo Fangqin and the two maids. In any case, they would wake up the next morning.

The next day, Yun Chujia was told about her thoughts to Mo Xiaoting.

Although Mo Xiaoting was afraid that Yun Chujiu would be in danger, he knew her temper. So, he had no choice but to remind her to be careful.

“Fang Cao, not only are there powerful beasts on the Thousand Feet Mountain, there is also a poisonous forest inside. You must avoid that area, otherwise, the odds are stacked against you. Do you understand?”

“Grandfather, I understand. Don’t worry, I will be back in three months or two at most. Take care of yourself,” Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

But, this woman was thinking to herself, ‘tsk tsk, if outsiders didn’t know, they would have thought that the relationship between grandfather and grandson was so good.’. In reality, they were all afraid that the other party would die and their interests would not be guaranteed. How ironic.

Mo Xiaoting gave some more instructions. After thinking for a while, he gritted his teeth and said, “Fang Cao, it’s dangerous for you to go there. Go to our shop and pick out more defensive spiritual weapons.”

Mo Xiaoting’s heart ached because he knew that Yun chujiu had never been reserved. She would definitely clean out the entire shop. However, it was worth it to save the Money Tree’s life.

Yun Chujiu did not stand on ceremony as she led Hei Shi and the others to sweep the place.

She was good at using chicken feathers as an arrow. Not only did she sweep away all the defensive spiritual weapons in the equipment shop, she also swept through all the snack shops and grocery stores.

Mo Xiaoting had already expected this outcome, so when he received the report, he could only smile bitterly.
