

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2077

Hei Shi and the others' faces were stiff. As expected, money could make the world go round! No wonder this little ancestor was so greedy. It turned out that being rich was really good!

Yun chujiu brought everyone to the largest restaurant in Thunder City for lunch.

Hei Shi and the others had come out more often, so they were not so reserved. Everyone sat around a table, ordered a sumptuous feast, and began to eat and drink.

Yun Chujiu did not choose a private room. Instead, she chose a seat by the window in the hall on the first floor because she was ready to gather some gossip.

There were many customers in the restaurant. Most of them were talking while eating, and they were also talking about the latest gossip.

Yun chujiu soon heard a piece of news that was great news for others, but it was a bolt from the blue for her.

Although the Thunder Disaster Valley was covered by lightning all year round, the Lightning would stop for four hours every five thousand years. This was a rare opportunity to go in and pick spiritual herbs.

Coincidentally, tomorrow was that once-in-five-thousand-years good day, which was why so many outsiders suddenly came to Thunder City.

Fortunately, Thunder City was located in a remote area, so many people didn't know about this place. Otherwise, there would be more people than this place.

Yun chujiu sighed in her heart. She originally wanted to level up and make a fortune, but she didn't expect that she would be so unlucky to be able to make it on such a day.

Although four hours was very short, with so many people pouring in, it was like a swarm of locusts. She reckoned that only some hidden spiritual herbs could be spared. What Bad Luck!

This guy rolled his eyes. It seemed like he had to hurry up. It would be best if he went to Thunder Disaster Valley to sweep the place later. However, she thought about it and realized that this wouldn't work either. There would definitely be many people at the entrance of the Thunder Calamity Valley. When they entered and discovered that the spirit herbs had all been picked, they would definitely discover that it was her doing. At that time, it would simply be a crime to have a treasure.

Thinking of this, this fellow clenched her teeth. She made a painful decision. Forget it. Although the spirit herbs were important, her life was still more important. If she lost some, she would lose some! Alright, this shameless fellow had already treated the spirit herbs in Thunder Calamity Valley as her private property.

After everyone had eaten lunch, Yun chujiu swept through the streets again. Most of the things she bought were food. Then, she returned to the inn with a full load.

From Afar, she could see many people surrounding the entrance of the inn. The corner of Yun Chujiu's mouth curled up. There was going to be a show to watch!

Yun chujiu squeezed to the front and saw the fat shopkeeper apologizing to a man in a low voice. "Young master, it's not that I'm deceiving you, but we really don't have any rooms left in the inn."

The man looked to be in his early twenties. Yun chujiu could not tell his spiritual power level. The man was very handsome, but he had Diao Shaoyan, and his expression was very arrogant.

There were ten followers behind Diao Shaoyan. All of them were arrogant, and they were almost pointing their noses at the sky.

Hearing the fat shopkeeper's apology.., a triangular-eyed follower behind Diao Shaoyan pushed the fat shopkeeper. "Humph, you didn't mean to deceive us?" "Why did the last group of people have rooms after we left?" "I heard that they paid five times the price, so you opened up the backyard. In the end, you were deceiving our young master!"

Seeing that these people were not to be trifled with, the fat shopkeeper naturally did not dare to go head-to-head with them, he just kept on explaining and apologizing, "Young master, the backyard was originally occupied by the two of us. How could we have the cheek to let such a noble guest like you condescend to us?"

Diao Shaoyan pursed his lips. "It doesn't matter if it's simple or crude. At least it has its own courtyard. This young master has decided to stay. You Chase those people out for this young master. This young master wants to live in it!"
