

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2093

Manager Liu felt that this was a good opportunity to curry favor with Yun Chujiu, so he immediately ordered people to buy a bunch of snacks for Yun Chujiu.

Yun chujiu looked at manager Liu with appreciation. Manager Liu immediately felt that the sky had turned blue and the clouds had turned white. The little devil probably wouldn't cause any trouble for a while.

The Mo family was the biggest family in Fu Hu city. They occupied a total of two streets. Manager Liu brought Mo Xiaoting and Yun Chujiu to the fifth house of the Mo family, the fifth house that Mo Xiaoting had been in contact with.

Manager Liu was also from the fifth house, so he was naturally familiar with the area. He brought Mo Xiaoting and Yun Chujiu to wait at the front door before sending someone in to report.

After a while, a man who looked like a housekeeper walked over.

The man chatted with manager Liu for a while, but he did not even look at Mo Xiaoting and Yun Chujiu. It wasn't until manager Liu stopped him from talking that he asked, "Housekeeper Zhu, what did fifth elder say?"

“The fifth elder said that he was getting old and was afraid that he would be sad after meeting them, so he decided to not meet them for the time being. Let’s meet again on the day of the wedding,” housekeeper Zhu said arrogantly.

Manager Liu could only ask, “What about the other masters of the fifth house? Where do the fourth Master and Miss Fangcao Live?”

Only then did housekeeper Zhu Glance at Mo Xiaoting and Yun Chujiu, with a fake smile, he said, “The other masters are also very busy. How would they have the time to see them? Our fifth house has a lot of servants’ rooms. You can just find two rooms for them to live in.”

Mo Xiaoting’s face was ashen. Although he was mentally prepared and felt that he would be treated badly by his own family, he was being too harsh.

Manager Liu caught a glimpse of the smile on Yun Chujiu’s face and his heart skipped a beat. He subconsciously took a few steps back. He felt that housekeeper Zhu was in deep trouble.

As expected, Yun Chujiu took two steps forward, “Are you the housekeeper of the fifth house?”

Housekeeper Zhu thought Yun Chujiu was giving him some benefits, he couldn’t help but curl his lips, “That’s right, I am the housekeeper of the fifth house. I don’t like things from the Western continent. You Don’t have to waste your efforts. This thing is worlds apart. The people of the Western continent are inferior. Although I’m a slave, but also...”

PA! PA!

Housekeeper Zhu's words were interrupted by two loud slaps. Housekeeper Zhu's face immediately swelled up, and even the back of his molars were slapped.

Housekeeper Zhu was stunned by the beating! He never dreamed that a little girl from the western continent would actually dare to hit him! ! Although he was the housekeeper of the fifth branch, how could he not be better than these lowly people? !

"You, you little B * Tch, how Dare You Hit Me? Men, arrest this B * Tch!" Housekeeper Zhu said fiercely as he covered his face.

Manager Liu's mouth twitched. As expected, he knew that the little devil would not be bullied like this. But, he had just arrived and had already beaten up the housekeeper of the fifth branch. How was he going to end things now?

Although Mo Xiaoting felt that Yun Chujiu's two slaps were too good for him, he still blamed Yun Chujiu. He didn't have to hit her to express his dissatisfaction. But, what was he going to do now that the situation had escalated?

A few guards at the door heard housekeeper Zhu's words and surrounded Yun chujiu. Yun chujiu sneered, "If anyone of you dares to touch me today, I will make their head fall to the ground. If you don't believe me, Let's give it a try."

Although the guards thought that Yun Chujiu was talking big, they hesitated for a moment. No matter what, this little girl was the daughter of a branch. If they really started to fight, the higher-ups might really blame her.
