

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2098

Yun Chujiu was good at Reading People's expressions. She could tell that none of the Masters of the Fifth House looked up to Mo Xiaoting or her.

Even their greetings were perfunctory. They were probably afraid that the fifth elder would blame them. Otherwise, they probably wouldn't have come.

Although Mo Xiaoting was unhappy, he still took out the gifts he had prepared. Seeing that the gifts were quite generous, the smiles on the faces of the people from the fifth house became warmer.

Whether it was the fifth elder or the older ladies, none of them had any intention of giving Yun chujiu a greeting gift. Yun Chujiu's eyes flickered for a moment before she continued to smile coquettishly.

Mo Xiaoting was originally worried that the greedy Yun chujiu would take the initiative to ask for a greeting gift, but seeing that she did not react, he finally let out a sigh of relief.

After the small talk, it was time for the banquet to begin.

Yun chujiu looked at the food on the table and her eyes lit up. Although the people in the Fifth Ward weren't that good, the food looked good and smelled quite good.

After the Fifth Elder exchanged a few pleasantries, the banquet began.

The banquet was naturally filled with alcohol. Mo Xiaoting had just arrived, so it wasn't easy for him to reject the invitation. He quickly became a little tipsy.

Yun Chujiu's eyes flashed. Was he trying to get the Old Fox to speak the truth after drinking? TSK TSK, these people were really stupid. Although the Old Fox's spiritual power wasn't high, he wasn't any less shrewd than these people. It was likely that he was just pretending to be drunk.

As expected, Mo Xiaoan began to discuss business matters with Mo Xiaoting. Although Mo Xiaoting said a lot, it was all insignificant details that made Mo Xiaoan frown in anger.

Yun Chujiu's table was filled with women, Mo Xiaoan's wife, Old Madam Wang, smiled and asked, "Fang Cao, I heard that you came up with many good ideas for Guangshunzhi's business? You are so smart. You are much better than my granddaughters!"

The faces of the girls present turned ugly as they looked at Yun Chujiu with an even more unfriendly gaze. A lowly person from the western continent was better than them? What a joke!

Thus, before Yun Chujiu could answer, a girl wearing a pink dress said arrogantly, "Grandmother, although sister Fangcao's business is not bad, her spiritual power is too low! The most important thing for us cultivators is to cultivate, and everything else is secondary. Sister Fangcao, you should focus on cultivating in the future."

“Sister Fangjiao is right. My spiritual power is too low. I can’t even lift my head in front of my sisters!” Yun chujiu lowered her head and said with self-pity.

Mo fangjiao heard Yun Chujiu’s words, her expression became a little better. “It’s good that you know. The spiritual power in our eastern continent is much denser than that in the western continent. You should take this time to cultivate properly. It’s not a wasted trip to the eastern continent.”

boxn ov el. c o m

“Yes, thank you for your guidance, Sister Fangjiao.”

After Yun Chujiu finished her words obediently, she picked up her chopsticks and directly picked up half of the fish and placed it into her bowl. She happily ate it. The fish was fresh and tender, and the taste was really not bad.

When the other girls in the seats saw this, they all felt disdain in their hearts. As expected, she was a lowly person from the western continent. One look and they could tell that she had never eaten good food before. She was just a good-for-nothing.

Seeing this, old madam Wang frowned slightly. She originally wanted to ask a few more questions, but now it seemed that there was no need to ask anymore.

Everyone's impression of Yun Chujiu was basically fixed. She had just arrived and had already started fighting with a butler. She had a reckless personality and was even a bit of a scoundrel. In addition, she had low spiritual power, was stingy, and was gluttonous. Other than being able to do some business, she had no other redeeming qualities.