

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2100

Yun chujiu shook her head. "I can't talk nonsense. I was talking about Baloo just now. Let's not talk anymore. I'll go to your shop to buy some Rouge Powder!"

As Yun Chujiu said that, she entered a rouge powder shop and began to choose the Rouge powder that she liked.

The manager of the Rouge shop was so happy that he couldn't close his mouth. He started to introduce the shop. Yun chujiu was as forthright as usual. "Okay, put these on for me. I'll buy them all."

The manager saw Chun Xiao Go to the shop assistant to count the Rouge powder that Yun Chujiu had bought, he asked Yun Chujiu in a low voice, "Miss, why did you spend so much money to buy so many things? Don't worry. After you tell me, I definitely won't tell anyone."

Yun chujiu looked around, then she lowered her voice and said, "Sigh, I see that you're also a person who keeps his word. Then I'll tell you!" To tell you the truth, you've also seen that I'm a teenage girl. This definitely belongs to the younger generation in the Mo family. I originally thought that when I came this time, those elders would at least give me a greeting gift no matter what. After all, my grandfather had prepared a very generous gift for them.

Who would have thought that I didn't even get a melon seed skin. There was no one who gave me a greeting gift at all. I was also a person who loved face. If I returned to the Western continent and someone asked me, how could I have the face to say that I didn't get anything? On the one hand, I was embarrassing myself. On the other hand, I was also embarrassing my own family, so I planned to buy some things from my own pocket. When I went back, I would tell others that this was a gift from my own family.

I will only tell you about this matter. You must not tell anyone else. If others find out that it was me who said it, my grandfather will definitely beat me to death.”

The manager of the Rouge Shop had a burning desire to gossip in his eyes. He nodded and said, “Miss, don’t worry. I will definitely not tell anyone. You are welcome to come again next time.”

Yun chujiu nodded and then brought Chun Xiao to the other shops to continue their sweep.

The manager of the Rouge Shop walked around the shop a few times. He hesitated for a moment and felt that his heart was really suffocating. After hearing such explosive news, if he did not share it with others, it would be too unbearable, right? !

Forget it. I’ll just tell Old Li from the equipment shop next door. I believe that he won’t tell anyone. As long as it doesn’t spread, it doesn’t count as me not keeping my word.

Thus, the boss of the Rouge shop went to the equipment shop next door and called manager Li from the equipment shop to the side, he said mysteriously, “Old Li, I’ll tell you a big secret! I know why that black fragrant grass bought so many things.”

The eyes of the owner of the equipment shop instantly lit up. “Old Zhou, quickly tell me, why? I’m dying of Curiosity!”

“I heard from my brother-in-law’s brother-in-law’s sister-in-law’s sister-in-law’s sister-in-law that the five branches of the Mo family didn’t even give that Mo fangcao a greeting gift.”. Guang Shunzhi had given every master of the Mo family a generous gift. TSK TSK, the five branches of the Mo family were really stingy!

“I guess Miss Fang Cao bought so many things. She must have gone back to make up the scene. How pitiful.”The manager of the Rouge shop repeated what Yun Chujiu had told him.

“Ah, so it’s like that! I guess the fifth branch of the Mo family doesn’t look up to Guang Shunzhi at all. After all, the people of the Western continent are just inferior people. They are high and mighty. How could they look up to him?”

After the manager of Rouge shop had satisfied his desire to gossip, he instructed shopkeeper Zhou not to tell anyone else before leaving.

Shopkeeper Zhou, who was in the equipment shop, walked around the room a few times. He felt that if he didn’t share such explosive gossip, he probably wouldn’t be able to sleep well at night. Thus, he shared this news with shopkeeper Qi of the satin shop.

Shopkeeper Qi then told shopkeeper Zhang of the snack shop about the news..
