

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2101

If there was any news that spread the fastest, it would naturally be through the grapevine.

Yun chujiu was well-versed in this. The more she asked people to keep a secret, the more she wanted them to keep it a secret. Did the family want to keep it a secret? In their dreams!

Yun Chujiu did not covet what they had. After all, she and Mo Xiaoting had done a lot of dirty work in their business, and Mo Xiaoting had also given Yun Chujiu a lot of spirit stones.

By doing this, she wanted to attract the attention of the Mo family, just like how she had attracted Mo Xiaoting's attention in the past.

If there was a good wind, she could rely on her strength to send her up to the clouds. Without the wind, she would not be able to get up no matter how hard she tried. So, she had to do something.

Half a year had passed since the three-year agreement. Her current level of spiritual power was only at the fourth layer of Ling Xuan Realm. It was simply too slow. She had to jump from the western continent to the eastern continent. This was a great opportunity and she could not miss it.

Yun chujiu brought Chun Xiao to the restaurant to buy a few good tables. Only then did she swagger back to the fifth branch of the Mo family with Chun Xiao.

Yun chujiu took out a few pieces of Rouge and powder and gave them to Chun Xiao and Chun Yue. She then went to see Mo Xiaoting.

Yun Chujiu took out the banquet she bought and the grandfather and grandson chatted as they ate.

“FANGCAO, you didn’t cause any trouble when you went out, did you?” Mo xiaoting felt a little uneasy. He didn’t think that Yun Chujiu was someone who could take it lying down. Not only did she not receive any gifts yesterday, she was even teased by a few girls from the fifth ward. It was strange that she did not react at all.

“Grandfather, I’m not a three-year-old anymore. How can I be so ignorant? “I’ve seen many things that are more novel than what we have on the western continent, so I bought a lot of them. I’m planning to get our customers to copy them and sell them for a high price,” Yun Chujiu said in a low voice, her voice wasn’t low, so both Chun Xiao and the maids at the listening wind pavilion could hear her clearly.

Chun Xiao had been wondering what Yun Chujiu had left to say on the street, but now she finally understood. This Miss Fang Cao was really good at doing business. She was always thinking about doing business. She hadn’t said anything on the street before because she was afraid that the merchants would laugh at her. How Pitiful.

Mo xiaoting and Yun Chujiu’s conversation quickly reached Mo Xiaoan’s ears.

Although Mo Xiaoan felt that Yun chujiu was indeed a good material for business, he did not take it to heart. A lot of the things sold in the shop were made from materials from the eastern continent, even if they brought it to the western continent, they wouldn't be able to replicate it. There was nothing to be afraid of.

However, the next morning, the leaders of the other four branches of the Mo family came knocking on the door.

Mo Xiaoan couldn't help but wonder, were these four people here to find out more about Mo Xiaoting? Did they think he was up to something? They were really using the heart of a villain to measure the stomach of a gentleman!

boxn ov el. c o m

So, when Mo Xiaoan saw the four people, his expression turned ugly, "Why are you so free? You are a rare guest that we usually can't invite!"

Mo Xiaoquan, who was also the current head of the Mo family, snorted coldly, "Xiaoan, I feel that you usually handle things quite safely. I didn't expect you to actually do such an inappropriate thing. It's really embarrassing!"

Mo Xiaoan was dumbfounded!

“Big Brother, although you’re the head of the family, you can’t just label me like this for no reason! How Am I inappropriate? If you don’t believe us, you can take care of the business with Guang Shunzhi!” Mo Xiaoan’s face was gloomy, he said unhappily.