

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2102

Mo Xiaoan's words sounded like he didn't have any silver in his mouth. The four of them looked at each other and their suspicions deepened.

Mo Xiaoquan scoffed, "We'll talk about this later. After all, we have to check our accounts every half a year. We're not here because of business, we're here because of the way you treated Guang Shunzhi."

Mo Xiaoan was a little surprised, "What's wrong with Guang Shunzhi? I've arranged for Mo Xiaoting and Mo Fangcao to be in the upper room. I've also arranged for them to be served with good food and drinks. I've even arranged for a welcoming banquet. Is there anything wrong with that?"

Mo Xiaoping, from the fourth room, curled his lips and said, "Xiaoan, you sure know how to make yourself look good. What's wrong with that? Do you know what everyone in Fu Hu city is talking about?"

"The grandfather and grandson came all the way here, and the fifth branch just showed off their might when they met. Although you later said that it was housekeeper Zhu who made the decision on his own, no one is a fool. Does he have that much courage?"

"It's probably because of your instructions, right? TSK TSK, you actually let the grandfather and grandson stay in the other branch. Only you can do such a thing."

Mo Xiaofu had always been dissatisfied with the fifth branch's control of the Western continent's business. Now that he finally had an opportunity, he naturally wouldn't let it go.

Mo Xiaogui from the third branch also echoed, "That's right. Xiao An, you really didn't handle this matter properly. That's fine, but I heard that the elders of the fifth branch actually didn't give Fang Cao Girl a single greeting gift?"

Fifth brother, it's not that I want to criticize you, but aren't you being too petty? Guang Shunzhi gave you many gifts, but you actually didn't give a single cent? You really embarrassed our family! Now that the whole street is talking about this matter, I don't even have the face to go out!"

Mo Xiaogan was dumbfounded!

After a long while, he finally said, "Let's put housekeeper Zhu's matter aside for now. How did outsiders know that our fifth house didn't give her a greeting gift?"

Mo Xiaogui pursed his lips. "Fangcao Girl bought a lot of things yesterday. When others asked her why she bought so many things, she refused to tell them. Then, someone guessed that it was most likely because your fifth branch didn't give her a greeting gift. That's why she bought so many things and was prepared to go back and fill up the scene.

Fifth brother, as for the matter of you not giving her a greeting gift, it's probably because some servant didn't keep his mouth shut. Fangcao didn't say anything."

“Xiao An, I don’t think your fifth branch is lacking in gifts, right?”? “This matter is too inappropriate.”
“The Mo family is considered a third-class family. If word of this gets out, other families will laugh at us. You’d better think of a way to make up for it,” Mo Xiaoquan said unhappily.

Mo Xiaoan’s face alternated between green and white. He did not put Mo Xiaoting and Yun Chujiu in his eyes at all. He thought it was just a branch. It was already good enough for them to come to the eastern continent to broaden their horizons. So, he did not pay too much attention to the gift. If they didn’t give it to him, then so be it!

Who would have thought that in just a day or so, it would cause such a commotion? which servant had the mouth to say so much? It was simply despicable!

He did not suspect Yun chujiu because Yun Chujiu and Mo Xiaoting had already said that she bought things to go back and fake them. She did not mention the gift at all.

Moreover, the rumors on the streets did not mention that Yun Chujiu had said it herself, and he did not think that any girl would complain about not receiving a gift.
