

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2104

After Mo Xiaoan left the fifth elder's courtyard, he called Old Madam Wang over and scolded her.

Old Madam Wang called her two daughters-in-law over and scolded her.

Then, guests began to come to the waning moon pavilion one after another.

The first one to come was steward Xie, who was beside Old Madam Wang, after bowing, he said, "Miss FANGCAO, this is a greeting gift from our madam to you. We originally planned to give it to you together with the other four rooms after the wedding banquet, but we thought it would be too late, so we asked this servant to send it over."

Yun chujiu saw that Steward Xie was holding two upper-grade spirit tools in his hands, and she said with a smile, "I can not refuse an elder's gift, so I will thicken my skin and accept it. Please thank grandmother Wang for my kindness."

Steward Xie saw that Yun Chujiu did not intend to give him any money after she handed over the items, so he could only take his leave embarrassedly. He secretly hated Yun Chujiu in his heart. What a stingy iron rooster. This time, she would be rich.

Not long after manager Xie left, old madam Wang's two daughters-in-law also sent people to deliver the greeting gifts. Although they were not as valuable as old madam Wang's, they were still pretty good.

Even Mo Fangjiao and the other two girls also sent their maids to deliver the greeting gifts. Regardless of whether they were valuable or not, they still meant the same thing.

Yun chujiu sneered in her heart. No wonder the Mo family was only a third-class family. The knowledge of these people was really limited. They did not even know how to put on a full show.

Although old madam Wang and the others had already paid for the gifts, they had all been sent by servants. This was obviously a form of patronizing charity.

Even though old madam Wang and the others were elders and didn't need to come personally, Mo Fangjiao and the others, as their peers, should have come personally and said a few polite words. This way, they would have some face. TSK TSK.., sooner or later, there would come a day when they wouldn't be able to reach the top.

When Yun Chujiu went to pay her respects to Mo Xiaoting, she told him about the gifts she had received. Mo Xiaoting was quite pleased; he felt that Mo Xiaoan and the others' attitude had finally improved.

Yun chujiu smiled. When she returned to the New Moon Pavilion, she told Mo xiaoting what had happened using the voice transmission talisman.

After listening to the content of the Voice Transmission Talisman, Mo Xiaoting was dumbfounded!

He knew it. How could this greedy little girl Fang Cao Be So Quiet? It turned out that she had a big trick up her sleeve. This trick was effective immediately. The fifth wife immediately gave him a gift as a welcome gift. It was impossible for her to think that Fang Cao had planned all of this.

Mo Xiaoting once again felt lucky that he did not marry Yun Chujiu to the Zhao family. Even if she was weak now, she would still soar to the sky sooner or later. Furthermore, this little girl was vengeful and would not have a good ending if she offended her.

Mo Xiaoting suddenly remembered what Mo Cheng had told him. He thought about it a hundred times and comforted himself that Fang Cao would never find out about this.

The news of the fifth son of the Mo family giving Yun Chujiu the gift was quickly leaked out by the servants of the Mo family. The public opinion finally calmed down. However, because of this incident.., more people and forces turned their attention to Mo Xiaoting and Yun Chujiu. They wanted to see what would happen next.

It was finally the day of Mo Xiaoquan's eldest son, Mo Junkun's wedding. The event was naturally spectacular. Mo Junkun was most likely the future head of the Mo family, so his wedding was of a high standard.

Mo Xiaoting and Yun Chujiu followed the fifth son to the main room. The men and women naturally sat separately, so Yun Chujiu sat at a table with Mo Fangjiao and the others.
