

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2127

The servant girl was obviously confused by the way Yun Chujiu addressed her. She paused for a moment before answering, "Miss FANGCAO, you can just call me Caiyun. I Can't bear the way you addressed me just now."

"TSK tsk, even sister Fangbing's servant girl is so cultured. It really makes me feel inferior! Caiyun, let me ask you, how many years have you served sister Fangbing?"

"This servant has served the eldest miss for five years."The corner of Caiyun's eyes twitched. Feeling Inferior? That smug expression of yours should be described as smug, okay?

Five years?

Then there was no value in poaching her. She would probably be loyal long ago, unless something happened.

"Caiyun, I think the pastries just now taste pretty good. I wonder how the food in our residence tastes like?"Since there was no value in poaching her, then she would tease her.

"It's, it's alright."Caiyun staggered. Even in her dreams, she did not expect Yun chujiu to ask such a question. Not to mention the young ladies of the family.., even an ordinary family like Biyun would not ask her if the food was good when she was a guest! This person was really good. Not only did she ask, she even shamelessly said "We". She was really friendly!

“You are really humble. To be able to make such delicious pastries, the taste of the food is not bad either. I must stay for lunch today,” Yun Chujiu said with a smile as if she did not see Cai Yun’s disdain.

Cai Yun did not say anything. What a joke. What else could she say? Could it be that she could not stay?

For the first time, Cai Yun felt that the distance from the garden to the Great Elder’s courtyard was so long because Yun chujiu kept chattering beside her. Basically, it was all about the food in the big house. For example, what did Mo fangbing usually eat for three meals a day, for example, what was the best dish in the big kitchen..

When Caiyun saw the Great Elder’s courtyard, she excitedly said loudly, “Miss Fangcao, the Great Elder’s courtyard is right in front. This servant will send you here. This servant will take my leave.”

After saying that, Caiyun hurriedly ran away, afraid that Yun Chujiu would ask the great elder what he ate for three meals a day on a whim.

Yun chujiu curled her lips and walked to the door of the courtyard.

The guards at the door had obviously received the order, so a guard immediately brought Yun chujiu to the Great Elder’s study.

Yun chujiu saw the great elder sitting behind the desk, and the corner of her mouth twitched. She saw the great elder wrapped himself up tightly, only revealing a pair of eyes that seemed to be able to see through everything.

TSK TSK, was this great elder planning to become a mummy?

“Fang Cao Girl, you’re here? I suddenly caught a cold yesterday, and I was afraid of infecting you, so I wrapped myself up so tightly.”The great elder said kindly.

“Thank you for the Great Elder’s love and care. I’m really touched. You should pay more attention to your body.”Although Yun Chujiu said that she was touched, in her heart, she pursed her lips and said it nicely, she was wrapped up so tightly because she was afraid that she would see the fact that her body was weak.

“You came yesterday and said that you have some difficult questions to ask me about the pills. Tell me, what questions do you have?”The great elder saw that Yun Chujiu did not have any other expression other than being touched, and his heart became uncertain, was it just a coincidence that this little girl gave him the bone-quenching pill?

“Great master, I once read in a book that there is a type of medicinal pill that can stimulate a person’s potential in a short period of time. I wonder if there is such a medicinal pill?”Yun chujiu asked with a smile, however, the hand in her sleeve was holding the shadow escape talisman that still had the effect of fifteen minutes.
