

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 215

Of course, Elder Qi was not crazy. He remembered that during the lecture previously, even though Yun Chujiu was not paying attention, her answers to the questions were very accurate. He planned to take the opportunity to observe and see what was going on.

Yun Chujiu did not expect that Elder Qi would actually make such a request. After thinking about it, she happily agreed.

Firstly, she could get close to Elder Qi and see if she could catch Ding Lang. Secondly, she could learn more about medicinal herbs. There was a difference between what was recorded on the jade slip and what was actually done.

Yun Chujiu originally wanted to follow Elder Qi directly to the spirit herb garden. However, when she thought of the sacks that she had thrown away in a panic, she decided that it would be better to pick them up first. It was not that she felt sorry for the sacks of cabbage, but she was afraid that they would be exposed.

After greeting Elder Qi, Yun chujiu hopped out of the pill refining room.

When she arrived at the place where the sacks were thrown away, Yun Chujiu was overjoyed!

When the large group of demon beasts left just now, they coincidentally tore the sacks into pieces. The cabbage inside had long been eaten up by the wind blade rabbits and the likes—there were only some fragments of the sacks on the ground.

Yun Chujiu pulled the sacks of fragments together and put them into her storage ring, then went to look for Elder Huang.

When Elder Huang heard that Elder Qi asked Yun Chujiu to help take care of the herb garden, he was instantly overjoyed. Without waiting for Yun Chujiu to say anything, he took the initiative and said, “You don’t have to worry about the big kitchen. Just go to Elder Qi’s place! If you perform well, Elder Qi might be able to cure your problem of not being able to cultivate!”

“Thank you, Elder Huang! I’ll definitely do a good job. I won’t let you lose face!” Yun chujiu then thought to herself, ‘I can cultivate even without his treatment.’

Elder Huang could not help but nod his head. He then specially instructed, “I heard that Elder Qi’s spirit herb garden is filled with high-grade herbs. Every single one of them is expensive. You must be careful and not cause any trouble!”

“Elder Huang, don’t worry! I’m the most obedient. How could I possibly cause any trouble?!” Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

“That’s good! That’s good!”

The two of them chatted for a while more before Yun Chujiu bade farewell and returned to her own courtyard.

Yun Chujiu was very depressed!

She felt that there were traces of the gigolo everywhere. He had sat on the stone bench before, and he had also used this stone table before. There were also memories of the gigolo everywhere in the house.

Yun Chujiu walked around the house in frustration. She recited a few times that empty space was lust, and death was emptiness. Then, she sat down cross-legged and began to cultivate.

The grass in her Dantian kept releasing the power of lightning. Yun Chujiu used it for herself after cultivating. This way, her cultivation speed would be much faster. Yun Chujiu felt that she would be able to break through again very soon.

However, Yun Chujiu always felt that she was a pig and was being fattened by someone. When she was fat enough, she would be slaughtered for the new year!

Therefore, she desperately wanted to become stronger. Only by becoming stronger did she have the possibility of controlling her fate!

Early the next morning, Yun Chujiu hopped into the alchemy room.

Manager Gao's head hurt when he saw Yun Chujiu. He always felt that this little ancestor would stir up some trouble whenever she came. Although the demon beast riot the day before was not conclusive, he somehow felt that it was related to this little girl.

Manager Gao felt that he was thinking too much. She was just a little girl without spirit energy. He must be thinking too much.

"Good morning, Manager Gao! Are you too happy to see me? We can see each other more often in the future! Hahaha!"

The corner of manager Gao's mouth twitched. "I'll take you to see Elder Qi."

The two of them passed through the alchemy room and walked some distance before they saw a thatched cottage.

Yun Chujiu curled her lips. This Elder Qi was too stingy. Did he not say that alchemists were the richest?! Why did he have such dilapidated accommodation?!
