

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 218

Yun Chujiu was shocked and quickly took a few steps back. Then, she saw two people appear out of thin air in front of her.

Although they were two people, Yun Chujiu's gaze was absolutely attracted to one of the men in red.

Although the man was dressed in red, he did not seem out of place at all. On the contrary, there was a hint of charm mixed in his handsomeness. His long ink-colored hair was casually scattered behind his back, and he was playing with a skull in his hand.

Although he was doing such a terrifying thing, it made people feel that it was pleasing to the eye!

The man behind him was dressed in black, and he was holding a jade box in his hand. It was obvious that the fruit had been plucked by him.

Although Yun Chujiu pretended to be obsessed with the man's beauty, she quickly evaluated her moves in her heart. She was really stupid. Why was she shouting? She should have turned around and run away just now.

It was obvious that these two people were not to be trifled with. They seemed to be on par with the gigolo and the others. They probably used a concealment talisman just now. How was she going to escape now?! They would not kill her to silence her, would they?!

She did not know if this stupid lightning strike of hers would be effective!

Moreover, that red-clothed evildoer said something about an immortal tool recognizing its owner. Did he recognize the rolling pin?! Could it be that he wanted to commit murder and snatch the pin away?!

“My two lords, do you need any other spirit herbs? Let me introduce them to you. I’m very familiar with this place. In a while, our Elder Qi will be back, so you must hurry up!” Yun Chujiu said with a smile. It was as if the person who had just said those harsh words was not her.

The red-robed man was stunned for a moment, and then he smiled wickedly. “Interesting, interesting. There are really not many people who dare to play tricks with me. I didn’t expect that a little beauty like you would have such guts!”

“My Lord, you flatter me! How can I be considered a beauty? I’m just a servant guarding the herb garden! If you need any spirit herbs, I’ll pick them for you right away!” The corner of Yun Chujiu’s eyes twitched. Could it be that this red-robed evildoer had bad eyes?! He actually called her a little beauty?!

The red-robed man laughed in a low voice. “Of course you’re a beauty. Those ordinary people can only see the appearance. Only I can see the essence through the skin. Your skull is very perfect and you’ll definitely be a great beauty in the future. However, I think bones without flesh and blood are more beautiful. Come, I’ll help you right now!”

The expression on the man in red suddenly changed as he reached out his right hand to grab Yun Chujiu.

Although Yun Chujiu kept talking to the man in red, she was always on guard. Although his actions was very sudden, Yun Chujiu forcefully jumped to the side.

“Little Beauty! I didn’t expect you to be so agile! It’s useless! Your skull is going to be mine today!” The man in red waved his hand. Yun Chujiu sadly realized that she could not move, just like how she was restrained by the gigolo back then.

The man in red slowly walked in front of Yun Chujiu. He reached out his right hand and caressed Yun Chujiu’s face. “Tsk tsk, this skin and flesh is really rough. If you remove them, the skull inside will definitely be perfect! Little Beauty, on account of your beauty, I’ll allow you to choose a way to die! Do you want me to use poison to corrode your skin and flesh, or do you want me to cut off your head with a sword?”

“I can choose any way to die. Are you a man of your word?” Yun Chujiu asked in a trembling voice.

“Of course! I’m a man of my word! Little Beauty, how do you want to die?” The man in red crushed the skull in his hand and stared at Yun Chujiu’s head with great interest.

Yun Chujiu forced a sentence from her mouth. “I want to die of old age!”
