

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2191

When the examinees heard teacher Pang's words, they immediately began to discuss animatedly, "Heavens, only 600 teams are able to pass. Doesn't that mean that the elimination rate is 50%?"

"It's really too brutal!" However, the stronger teams were fine. They would just use the weakest as a hostage while the other three fought with all their might. "I reckon that the examinee who is the hostage won't be in danger of losing his life. If you are brave enough, just don't activate the jade token."

"That makes sense. If some groups are weak, just wait to be eliminated! I reckon that the other groups have already ended. They won't even be able to pass half of the journey." The one who spoke was Diao Shaoyan, as he spoke, he looked at Yun Chujiu and the other three with disdain.

Yun chujiu treated him like a mad dog. If he was willing to bark, he would bark. She couldn't be bothered with him. This fellow's eyes sparkled. He felt that Xingtian Academy was quite interesting. This test was quite ingenious!

The most important question now was naturally to choose the candidate to be the hostage. Before Xue Wuji and the other two could speak, this fellow said, "My spiritual power is the weakest. I'll be the hostage!"

Mo Fangbing didn't think too much about it, because she really thought that Yun Chujiu's spiritual power was the weakest.

The corners of Xue Wuji and Jin Zhi's eyes twitched. They didn't believe that Yun Chujiu was really only at the sixth level of the spiritual venerable realm, right? !

However, they also knew that this fellow had many ideas. Since she had proposed to be the hostage, then they would listen to her arrangements.

The examinees who were chosen to be the hostage were all brought into an array formation by the teacher. A white light flashed, and the examinees disappeared from their original spots.

Following that, the remaining examinees who were responsible for rescuing the examinees were also transported into the formation and disappeared from their original spots.

The originally bustling divine axe plaza was suddenly left with only the instructors who were responsible for testing.

Right at this moment, teacher Pang summoned a shadow stone from his storage ring. After landing on the ground, it actually turned into an incomparably huge screen. On it was a huge topographic map with flashing blue and red dots on it.

The red dots were the hostages of the examinees who were trapped in the Demon Beasts' nest. The blue dots were the examinees who were responsible for rescuing them.

The huge topographic map was divided into thousands of parts. Each group occupied a small piece. It was very simple and clear. One only needed to observe the position of the Blue Dots to judge the progress of each group.

As the designers of the assessment content, the instructors could naturally roughly judge the time taken by the examinees. It would take at least a day and a night to get the hostages out. After all, there were many demon beasts and obstacles set up for them on the way.

Thus, the instructors sat on the ground and discussed as they looked at the changes on the map.

"This round of assessment is about hard power. I think the first group, the eighth group, and the tenth group are likely to be in the top three."

"The three groups you mentioned are indeed not bad, but I think the fifty and seventy-eight groups are also not bad."

"Haha, it's hard to say which group will get first place, but I know that one group will definitely be eliminated in this round." "That group number 250, although the weakest one has become a hostage, the remaining three are still the weakest. They will definitely be eliminated."

All the teachers nodded in agreement. They didn't know if those four examinees were joking or not, but they actually applied for the Sky Punisher Academy with such weak spiritual power. They were really looking for a beating!

Teacher Pang heard their discussion. Although he felt that what they said made sense, when he thought of the little girl's quick-witted eyes, he vaguely felt that they might really be able to create a miracle..

At this moment, Yun Chujiu was in the nest of a demon beast. She suddenly thought of a problem. They had already been transported to the nest of a demon beast. Wouldn't the Demon Beast Eat the hostage? Where could she wait for her companions to come to her rescue?
