

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2193

Another four hours had passed, and the sky had already begun to darken. On the Divine Axe Square, it was as bright as day. It turned out that it was teacher Pang who had taken out several huge luminous pearls to illuminate the place.

These luminous pearls were much larger than the ones in Yun Chujiu's hands, and their brightness was very astonishing.

Some of the teams on the topographic map had already walked half the distance. In another six hours, they would probably reach the demon beast lair where the hostages were.

While everyone was discussing the top few, they naturally couldn't help but ridicule the team that was at the back.

"TSK TSK, how is it? I told you, this 250 team will definitely be eliminated. It has already been 10 hours, yet they haven't even completed one-fifth of the journey."

"With their speed, let alone one day and one night, even three days and three nights wouldn't be enough to save them."

"Yeah, their group's strength is too weak. Unless there is a miracle, they will be able to save the hostages."

While everyone was discussing, a slightly plump teacher pointed at the topographic map and cried out, "Miracle, a miracle has happened!"

A teacher beside him curled his lips. "Teacher Wen, what nonsense are you talking about? What Miracle?"

Teacher Wen was clearly so excited that he was incoherent. He simply ran to the front of the topographic map and jumped with all his might. He pointed at one of the topographic maps and said, "Look at it yourselves!"

Everyone was first amused by teacher Wen's funny actions and burst into laughter. Then, when they saw the topographic map that he was pointing at, they were all dumbfounded.

On the topographic map that marked group 250, three blue dots were moving slowly. The strange thing was that the red dot was rapidly moving towards the location of the Blue Dot.

"This, this is impossible!"

“There must be a problem with the topographic map! The one guarding the hostage is a level 40 demonic beast, and that black fragrant grass is only at the sixth level of the supreme being realm. How could she have escaped?”

“That’s right. Even if there really was an accident and she managed to escape, she would have encountered demonic beasts along the way. How could she run so fast? This doesn’t make sense!”

“Teacher Pang, show us the specific image. The topographic map must be wrong!”

Teacher Pang also frowned. Could there really be a problem with the topographic map? After he formed a seal with his hands, the topographic map number 250 began to be enlarged. The real situation was displayed on the big screen.

In the valley, a huge pioneer sabertooth elephant was running forward. On its back sat a little girl. She was chewing on a spirit fruit in her hand. She looked very relaxed!

The pioneer sabre-toothed elephant was the highest-level demon beast in the set-up. The Demon Beasts on the road had long retreated. How would they dare to come out to stop it? Therefore, one person and one elephant could pass through without any obstruction.

At this moment, a thought flashed through the minds of the teachers: that pioneer sabre-toothed elephant has gone mad! ! ! !

The scene was silent for a full quarter of an hour. A teacher shouted, "Teacher Pang, bring up the scene in the cave and see what happened. This is too unbelievable!"

Everyone chimed in. They were too curious. What exactly happened? The little girl who was at the sixth level of the spiritual venerable realm actually tamed a level 40 demon beast. This was simply unbelievable.

Teacher Pang was also very curious, so he formed a seal with his hands again. The scene quickly moved back and stopped at the moment when Yun Chujiu fell into the Demon Beast's nest..
