

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2269

The handyman didn't know what was going on. He thought it was teacher Du's instructions, so he was stunned for a moment before continuing his work.

Teacher du went to the other side of the garden to check on a spirit plant that was about to bloom. That spirit plant was quite a distance away from the hive, so teacher du didn't notice this guy's shameless behavior at all.

Teacher du did not notice it, but it did not mean that the queen bee in the Beehive did not notice it.

The Queen Bee was mainly to take care of the larvae, so under normal circumstances, she would not care if some of the edge of the Beehive was cut off. The remaining nectar was enough for it to raise its offspring.

Therefore, every time the handyman took the beehive, he would cut off the edge of the beehive, and the Queen Bee would turn a blind eye to it.

However, the queen bee found that Yun Chujiu did not follow the rules and was cutting the beehive that had the most honey. It was anxious!

After the queen bee turned her fat body around, the poisonous needle on her tail quickly stabbed at Yun chujiu.

Yun chujju was busy cutting, but she did not expect that there was a queen bee hidden inside and was stabbed by the poisonous needle.

The servant screamed in fear. He threw the tools he used to cut the honey on the ground and went to find teacher Du.

The red-eyed poisonous tail bee was very poisonous, and the queen bee was even more poisonous. If she couldn't take the antidote immediately after being poisoned, she would die in less than fifteen minutes.

Yun chujju frowned. The poisonous needle of the queen bee was as thick as a little finger. A bloody hole appeared on Yun Chujju's arm and blood started to ooze out.

"Damn it! I just got some honey! Do you have to be so cruel? Get Out Here!" Yun chujju was so angry that she pulled the bee queen's poisonous needle out of the beehive.

The poisonous needle was stopped. The Bee Queen wanted to use the needle on her mouth to stab Yun Chujju. Yun chujju picked up the kitchen knife and cut the needle off the bee queen's mouth.

The queen bee was really at her wit's end. She resigned herself to her fate and did not move.

Yun chujiu gritted her teeth. Damn it, since she had already paid the price of blood, she naturally could not let it go so easily. Therefore, this guy directly forced the queen bee to establish a temporary contract with her.

Yun chujiu caught a glimpse of teacher du running over. She blinked her eyes and stuffed the queen bee into the beehive. Then, she put the Queen Bee's broken stinger into her storage ring.

The Bee Queen took out another pill to stop the bleeding and swallowed it. Then, she picked up the big kitchen knife and continued to chop the beehive.

The Bee Queen dared to be angry but did not dare to say anything. She originally thought that a poisonous needle would be enough to poison this greedy little girl to death. Who would have thought that not only was she not poisoned to death, but she even forced her to establish a temporary contract. She was really unlucky!

As for the sharp beak that was cut off by Yun Chujiu, it was not a big deal. It would grow back in ten days to half a month.

When teacher du heard the report from the servant, his head buzzed. The scarlet-eyed venomous tail bee queen was extremely poisonous. If he delayed the time to take the antidote, the little girl's life would be over.

Therefore, he rushed over with all his might. In the end, he saw that Yun Chujiu was not only fine, but she was also hacking at the Beehive!

“Mo Fangcao, you, you are fine?”

Yun chujiu stretched out her right arm. “The Damn Queen Bee stabbed me once, but it still has a conscience and did not use poison. Otherwise, I would be finished.”

Teacher du was stunned. He saw that there was indeed a wound on Yun Chujiu’s right arm, but it had already begun to scab. It was likely that she had taken a good hemostatic pill.

However, the queen bee did not use poison? How was this possible?
