

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2277

The crowd shook their heads. They really didn't see Yun Chujiu using a weapon.

"It wasn't you. Could it be that I stabbed myself?" He hongquan pointed at his chest. Sure enough, his clothes were already dyed red with blood.

Yun chujiu rolled her eyes. "Maybe you were trying to escape punishment, so you put on a Bitter Act! After all, using spiritual power to bully classmates requires severe punishment."

He hongquan took out a hemostasis pill and was about to swallow it when he heard Yun Chujiu's words. He almost choked to death on the pill. "You, you're talking nonsense! You were the one who stabbed me! I saw it!"

The teacher of the law enforcement department could not tell who was lying at the moment.

At this moment, yun chujiu said indifferently, "To make a case, there must be evidence. Since no one saw me stab you and you can't provide the murder weapon, what right do you have to accuse me? Even if I stabbed you with a dagger, there shouldn't be no clues, right? "Teachers, you can ask the students here if I'm telling the truth."

The teachers from the law enforcement office asked everyone, and everyone shook their heads. Indeed, they did not see any murder weapon used by Mo Fangcao. She was right. Even if it was a dagger, there should be a cold light or a hilt, however, no one saw it.

The teacher from the law enforcement department looked at He hongquan with an unfriendly gaze. It was entirely possible that in order to reduce the punishment, he had put on a show. Perhaps his heart was already injured, and in order to frame mo fangcao, he had broken it again.

“You guys go back first. We will report this matter to teacher Pang and then deal with it,” said a teacher from the law enforcement department.

Yun Chujiu didn't care. After all, even if it was an injury test, as long as she refused to admit it, there was no way to convict her. No matter how he was punished, he hongquan's crime was more serious than hers.

After the teacher from the law enforcement department left, Yun Chujiu didn't pay attention to he hongquan. Instead, she looked at Zhu Jingtie coldly. “The second time! Again and again, but not again and again. If you provoke me again, I will kill you.”

After Yun Chujiu finished speaking, she walked away slowly.

Zhu Jingtie felt a chill all over his body. He felt that Yun Chujiu really had the intention to kill him just now. The way she looked at him was as if she was looking at a dead person.

Yun Chujiu went straight to the outside of Jin Zhi's courtyard and shouted, "Beauty Jin Zhi! Beauty Jin Zhi! Come out quickly! I am being bullied! Ouch, my arm hurts!"

Although Jin Zhi knew that it was possible that Yun chujiu lied to her, she was still a little worried and walked out of the courtyard.

The moment she came out.., she was hugged by Yun Chujiu. "Beauty Jin Zhi, I was wrong! I will never be greedy and risk my life again. I will never forget myself again. I have learned my lesson! Please forgive me!"

Jin Zhi glared at her. "Are you serious?"

"Yes! I am more serious than a pearl! I will keep my word. Don't mention it. Zhu jingtie found someone called he hongquan to stop me. If I wasn't smart, I would have been seriously injured."

"What happened? Are You Okay?"Jin Zhi asked anxiously.

Yun Chujiu told her the whole story and successfully diverted Jin Zhi's attention.

After dealing with Jin Zhi, Yun chujiu used the same trick to deal with Xue Wuji. This small incident was considered to be over.

The next day, the law enforcement department announced the results of the punishment. Yun Chujiu was acting in self-defense and did not deal with it. He hongquan bullied his classmate and used his spiritual power to attack. The plot was bad and 400 points were deducted.
