

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2298

Pui!

Who are you trying to fool? !

However, there was one thing that was certain. If the Ye family sent someone to tell the Mo family, the Mo family would definitely agree to it. Even if they had a hundred guts, they would not only be going against the ye family.

“Old Master Ye, I wonder if this matter is set in stone, or if you want my opinion?”

“No matter how you think about it, there’s no reason for you to disagree, is there?” Old Master ye stared at Yun Chujiu with a profound gaze, and his fingers could not help but knock on the table.

“Old Master Ye, what you said makes sense. Regardless of whether I’m willing or not, it seems that this matter must be carried out. I only have one request. I want to know the truth of my mother’s expulsion back then.” Yun Chujiu looked straight at Old Master Ye with clear eyes, since there was no room for negotiation, then he had to strive for the greatest benefit.

Old Master Ye seemed to have expected Yun chujiu to say this. He did not look surprised at all and drank a mouthful of tea instead, he sighed. “Lan is a genius that has appeared in our ye family for many generations. Our Ye family has placed great hopes on her.

“Therefore, even though she is only a concubine’s daughter, she has obtained the best resources in the Ye family. Otherwise, she wouldn’t have moved into Shaohua Garden. “Our plan for her is to enter the Primordial Chaos sect and glorify our ye family.”

When Old Master Ye said this, his expression became gentle, and his eyes were filled with longing.

Yun chujie knew that there would definitely be a turning point in the future. Otherwise, her mother would not have been expelled.

“Because of Lan’s beautiful appearance and outstanding talent, many families expressed their intention to marry her. Even the fan family, a super family tens of thousands of miles away, sent people to act as matchmakers for their eldest young master, Fan Jiquan.

“When we learned that the fan family came to visit, we were naturally overjoyed.

“At that time, your mother was out training and was not at home. She did not reply even when I sent her a voice transmission talisman.

“On one hand, I sent people to look for your mother. On the other hand, I sent people to investigate fan Jiquan’s situation.

“The people who asked for information reported that not only was fan jiquan a talented person, but he also did not have any bad hobbies. We were afraid that we would miss this marriage of the fan family, so we agreed to this marriage without hesitation, “I believe that your mother would not disagree.”

Yun chujie sneered in her heart. What do you mean you would not disagree? It was all because your ye family took a liking to the fan family’s family background and did not consider whether ye Lan liked it or not.

Great-grandfather ye took a sip of his tea and continued, “The two families exchanged the Geng invitation and decided to get married in the spring of the second year. Fan Jiquan is going to participate in the Primordial Chaos Sect’s test anyway. At that time, the two of them can support each other.

“One month later, your mother returned. “After hearing about this matter, she refused to agree to this marriage no matter what.

“I asked her the reason and she said that she already has someone she likes. I asked her who that person was, but she refused to tell me. I thought she was throwing a tantrum and locked her in the courtyard in a fit of anger, not allowing her to come out.

When the fan family heard that the LAN girl had returned, Fan Jiquan came over to visit, so I also lifted the Lan Girl’s grounding.

When Fan Jiquan saw the LAN girl, he was very fond of her. At that time, I was very happy. I thought that the two young people would develop feelings after spending a few days together, and the LAN girl's slight awkwardness would disappear. I didn't expect that..."

When Old Master Ye said this, he seemed to be a little embarrassed to speak, he gulped down a mouthful of tea before saying, "I didn't expect that Wan, who is Lan's eldest sister, also took a liking to that fan jiquan. That Fan Jiquan just had to be a philandering seed. He did not reject Wan's goodwill."
