

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2302

“Sister Bingyu, it’s better to do it well than to say it well. Just wait and see the result.” “There are probably a lot of rooms in Shaohua Garden. When the time comes, we’ll live together. If anyone treats me better, I’ll treat her very well,” Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

Ye Bingyu didn’t expect Yun chujiu to say that. She was a little touched, and her expression was a little unnatural. She shouted to the outside of the room, “Liu Li, give the side room to little sister Jiu.”

Little Sister Jiu?

Yun chujiu could not help but secretly laugh in her heart. This ye Bingyu really changed fast.

Yun Chujiu did not Hate Ye Bingyu as much as before. The Min family was often tortured by the Ge family. If ye Bingyu was not more forceful, those servants would probably ride on her head.

However, Yun Chujiu was even more unable to guess Old Master Ye’s intentions. The second wife did not have a son. Even if she wanted to succeed, she should have succeeded with a boy. What use was there for her to succeed? !

Or could it be that the second uncle was easier to talk to than the first uncle, so he gave her to the second wife?

Yun chujiu could not understand, so she decided not to think about it. Anyway, she had always believed that if someone did not offend her, she would not offend them. If someone offended her, she would kill them!

After Yun chujiu washed up, she first reported to Jin Zhi that she was safe. Then, she laid on the bed and thought about the ye family.

While she was half asleep, Yun Chujiu felt that her right palm was burning. She raised her hand and saw that the dim flame mark had become beautiful. It was as if the flame inside was about to burst out of her palm.

While Yun Chujiu was stunned, the flame actually jumped out of Yun Chujiu's right palm and went out through the gap in the door.

Yun Chujiu was dumbfounded. Back then, she couldn't get the damn flame out no matter how hard she tried. Why did it come out by itself this time?

Just as Yun Chujiu was in a daze, the flame flew back and danced up and down a few times. Its intention was obvious, and it wanted Yun chujiu to follow it.

Yun chujiu pointed at herself. "Are you sure? My spiritual power is so low. Won't I alert the guards the moment I go out? It's better for you to go out alone, no, with the Flame!"

The flame trembled. Apparently, it felt that what Yun Chujiu said made sense. With a whoosh, it flew out again.

Yun chujiu got off the bed and looked out through the crack of the door. She saw that the flame had disappeared. She did not know where it had flown to.

Yun Chujiu touched her chin. It did not look like it had abandoned her. It seemed like it was looking for something or doing something. What could a flame do? Could it be that it was a male and had gone to look for the Mother Flame? And then it would create a small flame?

Yun chujiu was sitting by the bed, and just as her imagination was running wild, the flame flew back and entered Yun Chujiu's right palm. Yun chujiu did not know if it was an illusion, but she felt that the flame seemed to be bigger than before.

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes. She thought that the small flame must have done something bad.

Yun chujiu lay on the bed again. Not long after, she heard a commotion outside, saying something about losing something.

Yun chujiu curled her lips. She did not know what the little flame had eaten. Anyway, she would know tomorrow. Go to sleep!

The next day, when she woke up, Ye Bingyu came over gloatingly.

“Hey, let me tell you something happy. The thousand-year-old fire marrow that my uncle collected with great difficulty was gone. I heard that the thousand-year-old fire marrow was most likely intelligent, so he ran away by himself. My uncle almost went crazy with anger! Haha!”

Yun chujiu looked shocked, but she was rolling around with laughter in her heart! How was the thousand-year-old fire marrow intelligent? It was stolen!

No wonder it felt a little bigger. It turned out that after swallowing the thousand-year-old fire marrow, it really had the potential to be a foodie!
