

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2303

Yun chujiu glanced at Ye Bingyu. "Sister Bingyu, why do I Feel Like You're Gloating?"

Ye Bingyu pursed her lips. "You don't know. My uncle and aunt bullied my father and mother many times because of that old woman. Only Cousin Wen Hong is better in the Big House. The other three aren't good people!

"It is said that this thousand-year-old fire marrow was prepared by my uncle to give to a small leader of the primordial chaos sect. This way, Ye Bingying will be taken care of when she takes the entrance test. I didn't expect that she would run away on her own. This is Karma!"

Yun chujiu nodded, but she was still puzzled. "Shouldn't the thousand-year-old fire marrow be kept in the storage ring? How could it be gone? Besides, could it have been stolen?"

Ye Bingyu looked at her with disdain. "You're really a country bumpkin! How can the storage ring withstand the thousand-year-old fire marrow's heat? Only a special kind of ice silk net can withstand it for a few days."

After uncle came back, he put the thousand-year-old fire marrow in the cellar in his yard. There was a formation around it to isolate the heat and prevent people from stealing it.

"If someone stole it, there wouldn't be no trace of it. Therefore, the thousand-year-old fire marrow must have gained sentience and ran away by itself. It really deserved it!"

Ye Bingyu felt that ever since Yun chujiu came, everything that had happened had been beneficial to the two of them. Since that was the case, she would not pursue the past.

Yun chujiu secretly laughed in her heart. Since they thought that the thousand-year-old fire marrow was something that she had run away on her own, it was best to avoid being traced back to her.

After the two of them had breakfast, ye Bingyu said, "Let's go. We're not welcomed. If we're late, that old woman will definitely find fault with us again."

Yun chujiu smiled slyly. "Sister Bingyu, let's not go to the meeting hall. Let's go to great-grandfather's courtyard."

Ye Bingyu frowned. "Are you planning to curry favor with great-grandfather?"? I advise you to save your breath! Ye Bingying had previously been eagerly delivering tea and pastries, but in the end, she was chased out by great-grandfather, causing her to be covered in dirt. "If you want to go, go yourself. I'm not going to be a burden."

"Alright, if you want to be scolded by Ge Shi, go to the meeting hall. I reckon that old woman has already thought of a way to deal with us. I advise you to send someone to inform second aunt and have her go to the meeting hall. In any case, she fainted yesterday. Her body must be very weak."

Ye Bingyu thought for a moment and felt that what Yun Chujiu said made sense. Yesterday, that old woman suffered such a huge loss. Today, she would definitely find her way back. She said to the maid, "Liuli, go and inform my mother."

Yun chujiu was not worried about Min Shi at all. She was a skilled actress and would definitely know what to do.

Yun chujiu and ye Bingyu came to the outside of Old Master Ye's courtyard. The Maid wanted to go in and report, but Yun Chujiu stopped her with a smile. "Sister Cuilan, we'll just wait here for great-grandfather. You Don't have to go in and report."

"Miss Cousin, you can just call me Cuilan in the future. Since the two of you don't want to disturb old master, then I won't go in and report."

Cui Luan was very surprised. Firstly, she didn't expect this miss to be so polite to her. Secondly, she didn't expect this miss to know her name.

Yun chujiu nodded with a smile and pulled ye Bingyu to wait by the side. The reason why she knew Cui Luan's name was because she heard housekeeper Fu and Cui Luan talking yesterday.

Ye Bingyu really couldn't figure out Yun Chujiu's thoughts. Since she was here to curry favor, why didn't she go in? Was she afraid of being scolded by her great-grandfather?
