

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2309

According to Min Shi, Shaohua garden was originally just an ordinary courtyard. It was just a little bigger than the other courtyards. After ye Lan lived in it, she carefully designed it. Every blade of grass and every tree inside was planted by her mother.

Originally, the old master had said that even if ye Lan got married in the future, Shaohua Garden would always be kept for ye Lan. No one was allowed to live in it.

Later, Ge Shi forced ye Bingying to live there. The old master probably thought that Ye Lan was dead anyway, and there were no descendants, so he did not say anything more.

Now that she was back, the things that belonged to her mother naturally had to be taken out. It was time for the dove that occupied the magpie's nest to get lost!

Yun chujiu knew that she had already caused two incidents in a row. If she brought up the Shaohua Garden incident again, the Old Master Ye would definitely not like it. Therefore, this matter could not be brought up by her. She could only act according to the circumstances.

Great-grandfather ye looked at ye Zhihui. "Zhihui, how's the investigation of the thousand-year-old fire marrow coming along?"

Ye Zhihui had a dejected look on his face. "Grandfather, I've checked it. There's no trace at all. It was definitely not stolen. The thousand-year-old fire marrow must have gained sentience and burrowed underground to escape. Sigh! If it gained sentience, it would be even more precious. What a pity!"

"This is all a fortuitous encounter. Since she ran away, so be it." Bingying's aptitude was not bad. Even if she did not have the thousand-year fire marrow, she would still be able to enter the primordial chaos sect's outer sect. "Next year will be the day when the primordial chaos sect enrolls students. During this period of time, cultivate properly and don't waste it," old master ye said in a deep voice.

Ye Bingying hurriedly stood up and agreed. The uneasiness from before was swept away. That's right, she was a genius with excellent aptitude. Not to mention the ye family, even other first-class families were able to enter the outer sect of the origin chaotic sect. It was as rare as a phoenix feather or a qilin's horn. Yun Chujiu, that little B * tch, could not compare to her at all.

Yun Chujiu's heart was moved. If she could really enter the origin chaotic sect, it would be much more interesting than being in the Xingtian Academy. Originally, entering the Xingtian Academy was to prevent the ye family from taking revenge. Now that she had entered the ye family, the Xingtian Academy was somewhat useless.

Forget it. Anyway, there was still a year's time. She would take it one step at a time. The most important thing now was to get Shaohua Garden back. From the looks of it, Ye Bingying was still quite favored. It definitely wouldn't work if she wanted it directly. She had to think of a way to save the country.

Yun chujiu was in a difficult position as to how to bring up the matter of the residence when the god-like assistant, Min Shi, made a move.

“Grandfather, since Little Jiu is registered under the name of our second branch, as an aunt, I have to consider everything. Yesterday, Little Jiu stayed at Bingyu’s place for an entire night. What do you think of Little Jiu’s residence?” Min Shi said gently.

Yun Chujiu felt that this Min Shi was really on the right track. She was indeed worthy of being a comrade who had acted together with her.

Old Master Ye Thought for a moment. “Liu Shi, help little jiu pick a house. Compare the treatment to bingying and Bingyu.”

Liu Shi agreed and felt proud in her heart. Little B * Tch, you actually dared to bully bingying. Watch How I’ll Teach You a lesson.

“Great-grandfather, I usually stay in the academy. There’s no need to prepare a house and Maids for me alone. It’s a waste.” Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

“Nonsense! Even if I stay for a day, the Ye family will still have your courtyard.” Great-grandfather ye glared at her.

Yun chujiu sighed. “Great-grandfather, to be honest, I actually want to live in Shaohua Garden.”

Great-grandfather ye frowned. This little nine girl was really insatiable. Why was she so fixated on Shaohua Garden? She really had no sense of propriety.

Ge Shi and the others could not help but sneer in their hearts. This little B * Tch really took herself seriously? Could it be that she thought Old Master Ye would kick Bing Ying out and let her live in Shaohua Garden? It was simply wishful thinking!
