

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2317

After housekeeper Fu opened the cabin door, Yun Chujiu summoned a large chopping board and flew down from it.

Housekeeper Fu and the others were all dumbfounded. Others were riding swords, but this person was actually riding a large chopping board! He was really a foodie.

Just as everyone was complaining, they suddenly discovered that a mountain peak below was actually spewing out thick flames. It was actually a volcano that had erupted!

The worst part was that they discovered that Yun Chujiu had fallen head first and was instantly engulfed by the flames!

Before everyone could react, that mountain had strangely sealed itself again. Other than the lava on the ground and the trees that had already turned into nothingness, it was as if everything that had happened just now was just an illusion.

Housekeeper fu sat down on the ground. It was over, cousin Miss was dead for sure! Such a fierce flame, and it was the earth core fire that erupted from underground. Unless it was a mighty figure of the primordial chaos sect, he was dead for sure! Moreover, the mountain peak had already been sealed off. There was no chance of survival at all.

Although they knew that the hope was slim, they still waited for another hour. They even circled around a few times to check, but they still found nothing. They could only return to the ye residence.

After such a big incident, Ye Bingyu and Ye Wenhong had no choice but to follow them back. They could just ask for leave from the academy.

When Ye Yuanliang heard housekeeper Fu's words, he immediately sat down on the chair. If he had known earlier, he would have refused to acknowledge little jiu. But now, not even a corpse was left behind.

Ye bingying sneered in her heart. Damn it! If he was burned by the earth core fire, then his soul and spirit would be destroyed. He would not even be able to reincarnate. This was karma!

"Sigh! Let's prepare the funeral for Little Jiu!" Old Master Ye let out a long sigh. This was fate! If she did not continue shouting, how could such a thing happen? She could only blame her bad luck!

Liu Shi agreed. She thought to herself that she would definitely make that bastard's funeral a glorious one and let her and her dead mother reunite in the underground!

Achoo! achoo!

“F * ck, who’s scolding me? ! Little Flame, put in more effort! I’ll support you spiritually!” A certain Jiu was happily watching the flames fighting in a group in the belly of the mountain.

The little flame was fighting one against ten and was surrounded by ten flames. The level of those ten flames was obviously much lower than the little flame. Not only were their colors not as beautiful as the little flame, but their mobility was also much lower.

However, there were many of them, so the small flame would not be able to win for a while.

“Small flame, if you can’t win, you’ll be letting me down! If I didn’t have the fire repelling pearl, I would have been burnt to ashes! What are you waiting for? Charge! Charge! Your strength has increased, so you can help me crush the scum.” Yun chujiu shouted at the side to cheer for her son.

Perhaps it was because of Yun Chujiu’s urging, the small flame suddenly launched an attack and rushed towards a cluster of flames.

Yun chujiu opened her eyes wide in curiosity. She saw that the small flame had wrapped around the cluster of flames. Naturally, the cluster of flames was unwilling to be swallowed and kept struggling. The other flames also pounced towards the small flame.

Yun Chujiu felt that she had to do something. Otherwise, the small flame might not be able to hold on.

Yun chujiu raised her hand, and several piglets of spiritual power pounced on the flames. Although they were not of much use, they could at least hold them back and buy some time for the small flames.

With Yun Chujiu's cooperation, the small flames spent more than twenty hours before they finally swallowed all ten clusters of flames. Then, they lazily drilled into Yun Chujiu's right palm.

As the ten clusters of flames disappeared, the flames in the belly of the mountain were all extinguished. The rocks that had been roasted until they were red emitted a faint light, so the visibility in the belly of the mountain was not bad.

"Damn it! You Don't care whether you eat or bury them. How are you going to get out now?" Yun chujiu complained.
