

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2336

Coffin, red dress, beautiful girl.

For a moment, everyone was stunned!

Could it really be that Yun Chujiu was resurrected?

After the red-dressed girl came out of the coffin, she actually slowly walked towards Old Master Ye.

Her manners were Myriad, and every step was like a lotus. It was indescribably noble and elegant. It was as if... as if the fairy of the nine heavens had descended to the mortal world?

Old Master Ye's heart was filled with mixed feelings. Although he already knew that this was a play designed by Yun Chujiu, when he saw the red-clothed girl slowly walking over, his eyes still welled up with tears.

He was wrong!

He had thought that the LAN girl's daughter had a temperamental temperament that was more like a country bumpkin, and less like a first-class family's daughter.

At this moment, it looked like even the first-class family's daughter might not be able to catch up to her bearing and nobility. This great-granddaughter would definitely be the most dazzling heaven's favorite in the Immortal Yuan continent in the future!

Yun chujiu walked in front of great-grandfather ye and bowed. "Great-grandfather, Little Jiu is unfilial. I've Frightened You."

Great-grandfather ye's hand trembled slightly as he supported her. "It's good that you're fine! It's good that you're fine!"

Ye Bingyu's eyes widened. My goodness, this little jiu really knows how to put on an act. She's too beautiful!

Ye Bingying's body swayed on the verge of collapse. Her mind was blank and her face was as pale as snow. Yun Chujiu actually didn't die? And she actually, actually became so beautiful. This was impossible! This was impossible!

At this time, everyone came to their senses. There were all sorts of praises and surprised voices. An old man said, "Old Man Ye, quickly ask this little girl what's going on. How did she come back from the dead?"

“Yes! Yes! What’s going on?” Everyone chimed in one after another, their hearts practically dying of curiosity.

Only then did old master ye ask, “Little ninth girl, didn’t you die of a sudden illness? W-what on Earth is going on?”

boxn ov el. c o m

Just as Old Master Ye’s words fell, Yun Chujiu’s eyes rolled and she actually fainted!

Everyone was in a flurry again. Right at this moment, Yun Chujiu suddenly stood up to meditate, and then someone cried out in surprise, “Look! That little girl’s spiritual power level is changing!”

“Heavens! She actually rose from the first layer of the Ling Xuan realm to the third layer of the Ling Xuan realm. Could it be that she had an epiphany?”

“Oh right, wasn’t there an old man’s voice earlier? Could it be the messenger of Tian Dao?”

“You’re right. Wasn’t Ye Bingyu the favored child of Tian Dao previously? Not only did Tian Dao save her, but he also gave her an opportunity.”

..

Just as everyone was discussing, Yun Chujiu opened her eyes.

Everyone was surprised to find that the little girl's temperament was different from before! If she was graceful before, she had become playful and cute now.

The little girl looked at everyone blankly, then threw herself into the arms of great-grandfather ye and cried, "Sob, great-grandfather, I thought I would never see you again! Sob, sob, I thought I was going to die!"

Although there were no strict rules like the seven-year-old difference between men and women in the immortal essence continent, great-grandfather ye was still very embarrassed by Yun Chujiu's pounce. He could only say dryly, "It's okay! It's Okay!"

Yun chujiu cried for quite a while before she stopped crying.

Great-grandfather ye was forced by everyone's curiosity and could only ask again, "Little Jiu, what exactly happened? How did you come back to life?"

Yun chujia pouted. "I don't know either. I just vaguely felt that someone was calling me little sister Jiu. I tried to open my eyes, but no matter how hard I tried, I couldn't open them. At that moment, it was as if an explosion had occurred in my mind, and then I didn't know anything."