

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2388

108 ways of eating humans flashed through the mind of the electric eel. Then, it was stunned to find that the little girl in front of it was still alive and well, muttering.

“Is this white cloth strip really useless? Why Don't we try again?”

“Hey! Little Loach, do you see the white cloth strip in my hand? This is the famous spirit summoning banner. If you don't want to die, quickly establish a temporary contract with me!” Yun Chujiu waved the white cloth strip at the electric eel, she said arrogantly.

Although the bloodthirsty electric eel was a level 40 aquatic demon beast, Yun Chujiu was really not afraid of it because the biggest attack method of the bloodthirsty electric eel was the electric arc. This was just a joke to Yun Chujiu.

How could the electric arc of the bloodthirsty electric eel be as powerful as the Heavenly Thunder? If you have the ability, why don't you try firing the electric arc for 10 hours?

How could the bloodthirsty electric eel know that the guy in front of it was a pervert? It was angered by Yun Chujiu's words and fired another electric arc at Yun Chujiu.

It originally thought that this electric arc would definitely stun the stupid girl in front of it. However, the ideal was plump, but the reality was bony. This electric arc did not stun the little girl, instead, it made her even more arrogant.

“Hey, little loach, have you not eaten? How dare you call yourself an electric eel?” Yun Chujiu had one hand on her waist and the other hand was waving the white cloth strip.

The bloodthirsty electric eel had never been provoked and ridiculed like this. Even the higher-level demon beasts did not dare to provoke it. Today, it was ridiculed by a weak human chicken. One could imagine how angry it was.

Therefore, the bloodthirsty electric eel seemed to have gone crazy and desperately fired electric arcs at Yun Chujiu.

“Oh my, this small electric current is so comfortable to hit my body. It’s like a spring breeze. Come, come again!”

“Little loach, it’s not that I want to criticize you, but how did you survive in the Chenlan River with such a weak chicken like you? How did a trash like you not get eaten by other demon beasts? Are they all vegetarians?”

“Come on! Continue to electrocute me! Anyway, we have a lot of time. Let’s have fun together!”

If the bloodthirsty electric eel could spit out blood, it would probably have already emptied its blood slot. It was too f * cking an air beast!

In a moment of anger, the bloodthirsty electric eel started to discharge electricity desperately. This fellow was also blinded by anger. You should have been more careful. In the end, not only did the electricity run out, but it also used up too much of its spiritual power and directly turned white!

Jin Zhi, the old man, and the others were watching nervously on the deck. They saw the electric arcs in the distance flashing non-stop. The old man kept muttering, "It's over! It's over! This little girl is really impulsive!"

The old man had the intention to go down and save her, but he and the Brawny man both had fire spirit roots. It would be useless even if he went down!

The old man was very dissatisfied with Jin Zhi and Xue Wuji. These two young men and the little girl seemed to have a good relationship. Why were they standing there in a daze and didn't know how to save her?

Jin Zhi didn't know what the old man was thinking. She even comforted the old man, "Don't worry, Little Jiu will be fine."

Just as the old man was about to refute Jin Zhi, he heard the big man next to him cry out in surprise, “Benefactor, look! The bloodthirsty electric eel has turned white!”

The old man looked up and saw a huge bloodthirsty electric eel floating on the water with its white belly. There was a splash of water beside it, and a little girl poked her head out. Who else could it be but Yun Chujiu? !

Yun chujiu saw that the bloodthirsty electric eel had used up too much of its spiritual power and fainted. She could not help but twitch her lips. No matter how smart this Demon Beast was, it was still a little bit inferior to a human.

Naturally, this guy would not let go of such a great opportunity. He forcibly established a temporary contract with the bloodthirsty electric eel.
