

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2389

Although the bloodthirsty electric eel fainted, its spiritual sense was still clear. When it realized that Yun Chujiu wanted to establish a temporary contract with it, it refused in its heart.

It was a magnificent level 40 aquatic demon beast, but it actually established a temporary contract with a level 3 Ling Xuan Chicken. Wouldn't it make the beast laugh its head off?

Unfortunately, no matter how unwilling it was, it could only let Yun Chujiu establish a temporary contract with it.

Fortunately, what Yun Chujiu established with it was only a temporary contract. If Yun chujiu were to forcefully establish a master pet contract with it, the bloodthirsty electric eel would rather fight to the death than reject it.

After a moment, the contract was completed.

Yun chujiu ignored the bloodthirsty electric eel and swam towards the direction of the big ship happily.

The Old Man's face was stiff. Contract? Contract with a level 40 electric eel just like that? How... How was this possible?

After Yun Chujiu jumped onto the ship, she said with a smile, "This is good. We have the little loach to escort us. The journey will be much smoother."

The old man opened his mouth and finally said, "How... How did it faint?"

"It probably liked the white cloth strip and kept firing electricity at it. Finally, when the electricity was gone, it fainted. "Maybe it has been single for many years and felt that the white cloth strip fit the image of its dream lover?" Yun chujiu took out the white cloth strip and waved it a few times.

The bloodthirsty electric eel, which had just woken up, turned white again!

It really, really did not want to wake up again. It did not want to face that pervert again, and did not want to face the cruel world..

The corner of the old man's mouth twitched. No wonder he could not calculate the fate of this little girl. It turned out that she was a little pervert who did not follow common sense.

Although the bloodthirsty electric eel did not want to wake up, but Yun Chujiu was on the deck. "Little loach, if you do not wake up, I will tie a white cloth strip on your tail!"

The electric eel was forced to wake up by the Little Devil.

“Little Loach, you don’t have to worry. If you escort us to our destination, I will cancel the temporary contract with you. “Although we have established a temporary contract, I am the kindest person. I will not use you for nothing. When the time comes, I will reward you with some pills to stop bleeding.”

boxn ov el. c o m

The bloodthirsty electric eel reluctantly agreed, cursing in its heart. She was kind? If she was kind, it would really marry a white cloth strip!

With the escort of the bloodthirsty electric eel, the next voyage was very smooth.

“Little girl, we can go ashore in front. This place has far exceeded the influence of the fan family. There will be no more trouble.”The old man could not wait to find a way to go to the Tian Yuan continent, thus, these two days, he was burning with anxiety.

“Old man, although Zi Heng is my subordinate, he is similar to my younger brother. Therefore, I have some suggestions to tell you.

“You also discovered that the three of us have disguised ourselves. Now, we have already recovered our original looks. Even if the fan family stands in front of us, they wouldn’t be able to recognize us.

However, the two of you are too easy to recognize. Although you have already left the fan family's sphere of influence, there is no guarantee that they have spies here, therefore, you can not leave just like that." On one hand, Yun chujiu was sincerely looking out for the old man. On the other hand, she was afraid that the fan family would follow the clues and find trouble with her.

The old man nodded. "What you said makes sense. Do you have a way to hide it?"

Although Yun Chujiu had a disguise pill, there were only a few left. She was reluctant to give it to the old man. Moreover, the disguise pill only had the effect of ten days. It could only treat the symptoms but not the root cause.