

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2403

The leading guard coughed dryly. "We are not very clear about the city Lord's personal matters."

Yun Chujiu raised her eyebrows. This diplomatic language was quite skillful! However, there was a high chance that Mayor Huang did not have a woman by his side. Otherwise, they would not have said that they were not very clear.

Could it be that he really had his eyes set on her beauty?

Damn it, I am a gigolo. If he dares to have his eyes on me, I will castrate him!

In his mind, this guy immediately made up and directed a big drama about snatching civilian women. Before the big drama ended, they had arrived at the mayor's mansion.

Yun Chujiu had never been to the street of the mayor's mansion before. When she saw the mayor's mansion, two words flashed through Yun chujiu's mind: "Rich"!

This mansion was extremely luxurious. The only thing missing was the word "Rich" written on the plaque at the entrance.

However, it was also true. The mayor's mansion had to collect protection fees. All the businesses in Tianluo City had to pay taxes. Moreover, there might be other businesses.

However, this mayor Huang was very ostentatious. If he had money, he could just keep it to himself. He had actually put it out in the open. She really did not know whether this mayor Huang was arrogant or fearless.

Yun chujiu followed the leading guard into the meeting room of the Mayor's residence. An old man with gleaming eyes sat on the main seat.

Yun chujiu bowed to him as a junior. "This junior, Yun Chujiu, greets Mayor Huang."

The old man stroked his beard and sized up Yun chujiu several hundred times. He did not say a word.

"Thank you, Mayor Huang, for giving me a seat!"

As Yun Chujiu spoke, she sat on a chair next to her.

Mayor Huang:" ..."

Did he say that he was going to give her a seat? It didn't seem like he did? Could it be that this little girl's ears weren't working properly?

Mayor Huang didn't say anything for a long time again. He continued to size up Yun chujiu with an inquisitive look.

"Thank you, Mayor Huang, for the tea!"

Yun chujiu began to drink the tea by herself. It was sizzling very contentedly. Just now, when she was tidying up Liu Jinluan, she happened to be thirsty. Mayor Huang was indeed a nouveau riche. The taste of the tea was really not bad.

Mayor Huang:" ..."

He finally understood that this little girl was not deaf, but Shameless!

Mayor Huang suddenly burst into laughter, and Yun chujiu almost spat out the tea in her mouth. Damn, was this mayor Huang Sick?

Mayor Huang laughed for a long time before saying, "Little girl, no wonder you are so bold to swallow half of the fan family's spirit stone mine. You are really thick-skinned!"

Yun Chujiu's heart trembled. Oh My God, how did this damn rich old man know about the fan family's spirit stone mine?

Yun chujiu calmed herself down. After taking a sip of tea, she said with a smile, "Mayor Huang really likes to joke. Didn't the Cao family take away the fan family's spirit stone mine?"

"How could a weak little girl like me do such an earth-shattering thing? "Besides, I've always been taking classes at Xingtian Academy. How could I possibly go to the fan family tens of thousands of miles away?"

Mayor Huang clicked his tongue and said, "This little girl is indeed thick-skinned. To think that she can lie so smoothly. This is really an eye-opener for me! However, since I dare to say this, it means that I have enough evidence.

The back mountain of the fan family was intruded by a man and two women. Then, the three of them were sent to the fan family's spirit stone mine by Fan Mingchuan. The three of them entered the mine's canteen to work as odd-job workers. One of the little girls instigated those odd-job workers to defect.

The little girl then gave the miners an idea, asking them to bring the ores that had been mined to the Cao family. Meanwhile, she herself took away half of the fan family's mine and fled.

Now, the fan family and the Cao family are at loggerheads, and the culprit is sitting here drinking tea.
TSK TSK, what a good plan!”
