

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2404

Although Yun Chujiu's heart was in turmoil, she praised, "Mayor Huang's imagination is really admirable. Is there such a smart little girl in the world as you say? This is simply not human. She is almost becoming a spirit!"

Mayor Huang:" ..."

He originally thought that he already had a certain understanding of Yun chujiu's thick skin, but now he felt that he had still underestimated the extent of a certain Jiu's shamelessness.

People were shameless to this extent, and could only be said to be talented, absolutely talented!

"Little girl, since I said this, I naturally have conclusive evidence. You Don't have to be afraid, I don't have any other intentions. It's just that spirit ores need to be processed to turn into spirit stones. I just want to cooperate with you on the matter of processing spirit ores."

"Mayor Huang, although I can't bear to, I still have to say, have you not been resting well recently? "I'm such a delicate and weak little girl. How could I possibly be the little girl who swallowed half of the fan family's mine?"?

"Although I don't know what evidence you're talking about, I have enough evidence to prove that I've always been in Xingtian Academy. Therefore, you must have mistaken me for someone else."

Yun chujju sneered in her heart. No matter what you said, she just wouldn't admit it. She felt that Mayor Huang only had a small piece of evidence. He was trying to trick her. No matter how powerful he was, how could he trace it back to the cliff of Tian Dao? Dream On!

Mayor Huang's initial 80% suspicion had now turned into absolute certainty. Although there was no concrete evidence to prove that it was Yun chujju who did it, it was extraordinary that a little girl could be so calm in front of him.

If Yun Chujju's identity was ordinary, mayor Huang would definitely use some means to force Yun chujju to admit it. However, Yun Chujju was the first daughter of the Ye family. Although he was not afraid of the Ye family, he did not want to cause unnecessary trouble. Anyway, there was still a long way to go, this little girl would reveal herself sooner or later.

Mayor Huang thought of this and laughed out loud. "Forget it, I might have really mistook you for someone else! I have met your great-grandfather once and we can be considered old friends. If you encounter any difficulties in the future, you can come to me anytime."

"Then, thank you, Mayor Huang!"! Great-grandfather had indeed told me about you before. He said that you were the most generous and generous, especially to a junior. Even the first gift you gave was an immortal artifact! "Mayor Huang, I wonder if it's true?" Yun chujju put down the Teacup, she asked with a smile.

Mayor Huang:" ..."

Should he say yes or should he say no?

Immortal Item? This little girl's heart was really dark! No wonder she could swallow half of the fan clan's spirit stone mine. She was simply a Pi Xiu who could only enter but not leave!

Mayor Huang did not say anything for a while. Yun chujiu picked up the Teacup and slowly drank the tea. Her little heart had suffered a shock. If she did not extort an immortal item from him, she would be letting down her conscience.

The two of them seemed to be competing in patience. After a full hour, neither of them said anything.

Yun Chujiu was not in a hurry either. An hour was not enough to buy a loss, and neither was it enough to buy a trap. She would just have to endure it! If she could get her hands on an immortal item, not to mention an hour, even half a month would be worth it.

Mayor Huang originally wanted to leave Yun chujiu there, and then let her take the initiative to take her leave. Who would have thought that the little girl did not know what it meant to be embarrassed. She was even more at home than in his own house.

Mayor Huang deeply understood a sentence: it was easy to invite the gods, but difficult to send them off! There was also a sentence, "Throw a rock at your own feet!"!
