

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2413

The old doctor looked at it carefully, then he said, "This is caused by the juice of the willow leaf and grass. Although it looks scary, it's not a big deal. "I'll give you a prescription. Take some herbs and put them in the face washing water. In less than ten days, they will be as good as new."

A few servants were about to say according to the lines that Yun Chujie had taught them, Yun Chujie suddenly said, "Old Miracle Doctor, to tell you the truth, we deliberately got the juice on our faces. "I didn't expect you to be so amazing. You actually found out the clues in such a short time. Your medical skills are really brilliant!"

The six servants were dumbfounded. What did she mean? was there a change in the plan?

Although the old doctor tried his best to restrain himself, he still showed a trace of pride on his face. He asked in puzzlement, "Little girl, why did you do this on purpose? The Juice on your face is so itchy that it's unbearable. It's really torturous!"

"Sigh! Old Miracle Doctor, if there was any way, I wouldn't have done this! Although they are servants, I can't bear to see them suffer like this. Wu Wu, come to think of it, I've really let them down." Yun Chujie's eyes turned red as she spoke, she actually started to sob.

Those six servants had the expression of 'f * cking dogs'. They were shameless! You Act, you act again! You Don't have the heart? Doesn't your conscience hurt when you say that?

Of course, this little devil definitely doesn't have a conscience!

The old physician saw that the servants' faces were distorted and their bodies were trembling. He thought, 'Tsk Tsk, they really have deep feelings for their master and servant. These servants are probably too touched.'

Yun chujiu twitched a few times before she continued, "Old Miracle Doctor, although the family scandal can not be exposed, I believe in your character. I'll tell you the truth!

"This courtyard belongs to my deceased mother, and it's also my courtyard now! "However, my aunt and cousin want to occupy this courtyard, and they have a powerful family. How can I defeat them? !

"Therefore, I thought of this method. I made my face full of rashes and lied to them that they might have contracted an infectious disease. In this way, they will keep a distance from me and won't have any designs on this courtyard."

Hearing Yun Chujiu's words, the old doctor said with emotion, "You are really a filial child. It's just that you are poisoned, not infected with an infectious disease!"

"Old Godly doctor, you must have a way to help us, right?" "You see that not only are your medical skills superb, but you are also kind-hearted. Please help us!" "If you don't help us, my servants, they are going to hang themselves in this yard to stop those people. Sob, SOB, I really can't bear it!"

The six servants were so angry that they almost vomited blood!

Shameless!

How could there be such a shameless person in this world? !

Hang themselves? You're the one who wants to hang yourself!

You're the one who wants to kill us, alright?

The old physician saw that the six servants all had expressions of anger but did not dare to speak up. He was even more certain that what Yun Chujiu said was true. These servants were really loyal servants. How rare!

The old physician frowned and thought for a moment, then, he said, "How about this? I see that some of your rashes have been scratched. The yellow water that comes out from the rashes is infectious. I will think about it and say it. I believe that they will not have any more designs on this place."

Yun chujiu bowed deeply. “Old Miracle Doctor, not only did you help me save the courtyard, you also saved the lives of the six of them. You are really a miracle doctor who saves the suffering and saves the suffering!”

The six people also agreed with Yun Chujiu’s words, and the old physician was so flattered that his mouth was almost unable to close.

“Old Miracle Doctor, this is just a small token for you to keep. It’s not valuable, it’s just a low-grade earth grade spirit medicine.”Yun Chujiu said as she passed a wooden box to the old physician.

The old physician saw that the wooden box was very simple and crude, so he did not pay too much attention to it. After he finished writing the prescription, he left the house.
