

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2416

What?

Dirty Things? Disfigured?

The six servants were really shocked, but one of the old women still dared to say, "Miss, this is doctor Deng's prescription, how could there be Dirty Things?"

"Of course there is no problem with the prescription, but what about the person who brewed the medicinal soup? TSK TSK, I really feel sorry for you guys! Although your master originally wanted to harm me, they didn't care about your lives at all. All of you are abandoned!" Yun Chujiu said with her hands behind her back, she shook her head and said.

The six servants looked at each other. They were still a little suspicious. If something was done in the medicinal soup, wouldn't it be too obvious? Was the person who drugged them not afraid of being blamed by the higher-ups?

Yun chujiu was too lazy to explain to them. She said lazily, "I'm also too lazy to explain to you. We'll just see the results tomorrow morning! Of course, if you insist on washing it, I won't Stop You."

As Yun Chujiu said that, she took out the body of a wind-blade rabbit from her storage ring and threw it into one of the basins.

The six servants looked at each other. Looks were a big deal, so it was better to be cautious. It wouldn't take more than one night to see the results in the morning.

At this time, the sky had already started to darken. After Yun Chujiu finished her instructions, she went into her bedroom.

After she entered the bedroom, she first took out a basin of water and started to remove her makeup.

The rash on her face was naturally not real. As she was covered by a veil and she was still on the roof at the time, Liu Shi and the others did not notice the flaw.

After Yun chujiu washed her face, she lay on the bed and thought about the matter between ye Xinwan and her daughter.

Ye Xinwan and her daughter were different from Ge Shi and the others. They were in the name of the fan family, so even the old master ye did not dare to openly fall out with them. She could only think of ways to protect herself.

Although there was an excuse for the rash, since they had already started to use poison, perhaps if they found out that her face was fine, they would use some sinister methods again.

Yun chujiu rolled her eyes. She was really unhappy being so passive. She had to think of a way to take the initiative. It was obviously not feasible to fight them on the surface. Since it was not feasible on the surface, then she would use underhanded methods!

Yun chujiu thought about it and started laughing strangely.

When the servants in the servants' room heard Yun Chujiu's strange laughter, they immediately trembled. What kind of terrifying idea was this little devil thinking about? Could it be that she wanted to torture them again?

At this moment, their intestines were turning green with regret. They had thought that working in Shaohua garden was a good job. After all, what ability could a little girl who had succeeded her have that she could fool her and not retaliate? !

Who would have thought that they were not facing the same person, but a little devil!

Early the next morning, before Yun Chujiu had even gotten out of bed, she heard an old woman's shrill scream. Yun chujiu roared angrily, "What are you screaming for? ! Shut Up! I haven't woken up yet!"

After Yun Chujiu's roar, the entire courtyard immediately quieted down.

The other five servants heard the old woman's scream and rushed over to take a look. They saw that the wind-blade Rabbit's body was festering all over, and some parts of its body had even exposed its white bones.

The six of them felt a cold breeze on their backs. If Miss Biao had not stopped them yesterday, the consequences would have been obvious! Not only would their faces be disfigured, their hands would also be destroyed. The rest of their lives would be wasted.

They were both fearful and resentful. The one they were resentful of was naturally their true master. It was obvious that they had indeed become abandoned children. Human lives were as worthless as grass. The lives of their servants were indeed worthless!
