

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2419

The six servants were shaking their heads like rattle-drums. After the Little Devil's torment, it was estimated that no one would come within a mile of Shaohua Garden.

"Miss cousin, then... then what if Doctor Deng Comes?" An old woman asked in a hoarse voice. Yes, she was howling too hard just now, so her voice was naturally hoarse.

Yun chujiu looked at her as if she was looking at an idiot. "Doctor Deng has already helped us once, so naturally, he will help us a second time. That old man has already boarded our pirate ship, can he still jump off the ship and commit suicide?"

Almost at the same time, a thought flashed through the minds of the six servants. This little devil was too wicked! Doctor Deng was really unlucky!

Yun chujiu rolled her eyes and gave a few more instructions to the six servants. The six servants looked like they had nothing left to live for and nodded their heads in frustration.

At this moment, there was a knock on the door. Doctor Deng had arrived.

Yun chujiu asked an old woman to open the door and let doctor Deng into the courtyard.

Yun chujiu coughed and immediately, the six servants started crying again. “Old Miracle Doctor, Save Us!”

“Old Miracle Doctor, my face is ruined. I Won’t be able to face anyone in the future!”

“Old Miracle Doctor, will my face never be cured again?”

The servants who were watching from afar heard the crying in Shaohua Garden, and they confirmed that these people were really disfigured, and it was very serious.

Doctor Deng was so shocked by the earth-shattering crying that he almost sat on the ground. He steadied his mind and said, “Remove the veil and let me take a look.”

Yun chujiu opened the isolation array and sighed, “Old Miracle Doctor, before you look at our faces, please take a look at this.”

Yun Chujiu said as she asked the servant to bring out the medicinal soup bowl that was soaked with the wind-blade Rabbit’s corpse. Doctor Deng was shocked, “Miss Yun, what... What does this mean?”

“Old Miracle Doctor, this is the medicinal soup that you gave us! I think you should stop being a doctor in the future and change your profession to selling cooked food! With this exclusive secret recipe, shedding hair is simply too easy, isn’t it? !”

Doctor Deng was so angry that his beard stood up. “Nonsense! How can the prescription that I gave you have corrosive effects? ! This is impossible!”

“Old Miracle Doctor, if you don’t believe me, I still have a few pots here. You can try putting your hand in.” Yun Chujiu said as she took out the remaining few pots of medicinal soup.

Doctor Deng was so angry that his liver was trembling. Unless he was crazy, he would only put his hand in!

Doctor Deng took out a special glove from his storage ring. After putting it on, he used a spoon to scoop out a spoonful of medicinal soup and smelled it.

Doctor Deng looked puzzled. There was nothing wrong with the smell of the medicinal soup. He frowned and thought for a long time. Suddenly, he took out a herb with purple flowers from his storage ring.

Doctor Deng threw the herb into the pot. Everyone was surprised to find that the small purple flowers on the herb had turned blue. Moreover, it was a cold blue color.

Doctor Deng was shocked and angry. "Someone added salt-free powder into it! Who is so vicious? !"

"Salt-free powder? Then, if you are disfigured by this medicinal soup, is there any hope for you to recover?" Yun chujia asked from the side.

Doctor Deng shook his head. "Salt-free powder is a forbidden medicine of a mysterious family in the far west region. This old man also happened to have an opportunity to save a member of their family. He once told me about this kind of salt-free powder.

"Salt-free powder is colorless and tasteless. Only this kind of purple-blood Forsythia can be tested. "That person once told me that there is no antidote for salt-free powder. Moreover, the medicinal properties are very strong. Just a little bit of it can destroy a person's face."
