

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2422

Yun chujiu was not worried at all that someone would come over to find out what was going on. Those people were extremely afraid of death. Unless their balls were hurting, they would only come over to look for trouble.

As for the antidote for the salt-free powder, this fellow naturally knew about it because this fellow had guai Cao, this little expert in detoxification!

When she saw the few pots of poison soup yesterday, the guai Cao in her dantian was almost overjoyed. That was why Yun Chujiu was able to determine that someone had tampered with the medicinal soup.

Yun chujiu finally managed to suppress the strange grass that was clamoring. She took out the hundred herbs mirror and observed the reaction of the strange grass to guess the ingredients of the antidote for guai Cao.

The stalk of purple blood Forsythia that doctor Deng took out was indeed the main ingredient of the antidote, but it had no effect if used directly. It could only be used as the antidote after it was roasted.

In addition, there were a few other spiritual herbs that needed to be added to become the antidote for Guai Cao. Yun chujiu placed the few spirit herbs into the wooden box and handed them over to Doctor Deng. It would depend on his luck.

However, with her “Unintentional” advice, she believed that as long as doctor Deng was not too stupid, he would definitely come up with an antidote. TSK TSK, this could also be considered a big gift to him.

Just as Yun Chujiu was thinking about it, she heard a buzzing sound. She looked up and saw more than ten silver ring spirit bees gathering honey on the Spirit Peach Blossom.

The poison of these spirit bees was not strong, and they usually would not take the initiative to attack people, so most people would not pay too much attention to them.

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes. She had originally planned to seek revenge on the Ye mother and daughter after some time, but she did not expect the little angel-like helper to arrive. It was really wonderful!

Yun Chujiu suddenly jumped up from the hammock and reached out to grab a silver-ringed spirit bee.

The Silver Ring Spirit Bee was about to pierce through Yun Chujiu’s right hand, but it was frightened by the pressure of the small flame. It lowered its head and didn’t dare to struggle anymore.

Yun Chujiu was stunned. She didn’t expect the small flame to become more powerful. It seemed that the fire marrow from the Divine Axe and heavenly pit was not wasted.

Yun chujiu easily established a temporary contract with the Silver Ring Spirit Bee, and she also established a temporary contract with the other ten or so bees.

Yun chujiu revealed a sinister smile. It was the most interesting way to give someone a taste of their own medicine! Didn't the Ye mother and daughter like to ruin other people's looks? Then let them have a taste of being disfigured!

After doctor Deng and housekeeper Fu left, Liu Shi turned around and went to the guest house.

"Xinwan, things are pretty much as you guessed. Doctor Deng guessed that the Little B * Stard was poisoned by some poisonous herb. However, housekeeper fu called Doctor Deng away just now and said that the old master wanted to see him. Is there anything wrong?"

Ye Xinwan snorted indifferently, "Let alone that quack doctor, it's impossible for him to know about my medicinal powder. Even if he really knew, the little b * Stard's appearance has already been ruined. What can grandfather really do to me? !

Sister-in-law, in grandfather's eyes, the most important thing is not which junior, but the Ye family! Otherwise, that B * Tch Ye Lan was so doted on back then. In the end, wasn't she still removed from the list?"

Liu Shi nodded. "Xinwan, you're the one who saw it clearly. That Little B * Tch's appearance has already been ruined. She won't be able to stir up any more waves in the future. "Back then, ye Lan overestimated herself and went against you, sister. In the end, not only did she lose her little life early, but now her daughter has also been disfigured. It's really karma."

"HMPH!" "All of this was brought on by that B * Tch ye Lan!" "She, a daughter of a concubine, still wants to suppress me in every way. She's really courting death!" "Sister-in-law, in the future, find an opportunity to let that B * tch sow her seed and reunite with that B * Tch ye Lan!"Ye Xinwan said coldly.
