

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2423

Achoo! achoo!

A certain jiu, who was drawing with a brush, sneezed twice. "Damn it, it's probably Liu Shi and the others scolding me again! If it wasn't for the fear of causing too much trouble, I really wanted to take care of Liu Shi and Ge Shi as well."

Although Yun Chujiu had only seen the ye mother and daughter once, her drawing was very lifelike.

The dozen silver ring spirit bees stopped on Yun Chujiu's body and looked at the portrait curiously.

They were actually very helpless about being rejected by the contract! Because, they couldn't defeat this pervert in front of them! Ah! Ah!

After Yun Chujiu finished drawing, she said to the spirit bees, "Do you see them? These two people are your targets. Go and scout around first, confirm the courtyard they live in, and then come back to find me."

The spirit bees heard Yun Chujiu's instructions and flew away obediently.

Yun chujiu took out a pot of medicinal soup with salt-free powder from her storage ring and started to drink it. Fortunately, the servants were all sent away by Yun Chujiu. Otherwise, they would have been scared to death when they saw this scene.

Yun Chujiu felt that it was no wonder that others said she was a pervert. It seemed that she was quite a pervert! If it were an ordinary person, after drinking such a big bowl of medicinal soup, not to mention that it was highly poisonous, even if they were stuffed to death, they would still be stuffed to death.

After Yun Chujiu finished drinking the medicinal soup, she held a small porcelain bowl in her hand and said to the guai Cao in her dantian, "Spit out a small part of the salt-free powder for me. I have use for it. In the future, when I have the opportunity, I will get the formula and let you drink to your heart's content."

The guai Cao in her Dantian reluctantly squeezed out a few drops of liquid.

Yun Chujiu took a sniff and found that there was no smell. It seemed that it was the salt-free powder.

After Yun chujiu diluted the few drops of liquid, she carefully got more than ten leaves.

The leaves that Yun chujiu chose were the iron-core camphor tree that was commonly planted in the ye family's courtyard. This tree was very resistant to drought, so its leaves were relatively small and in the shape of a drum, which was convenient for collecting rainwater, yun chujiu just happened to put the salt-free water into the drum.

As soon as Yun Chujiu was done, the dozen silver ring spirit bees flew back.

“You guys think of a way to get the medicinal juice on the leaves into their clothes or the water used to wash their faces. You can also put it in their food.

“After you succeed, I have some honey from the red-eyed poisonous tail bees. I’ll give you some when the time comes. “Oh right, the medicinal juice on the leaves has a corrosive effect. Be careful not to get it on yourself.”

After Yun Chujiu finished speaking, she handed the soaked leaves to the spirit bees.

Since the leaves were not stained with the medicinal juice, they would not have any effect on themselves if they held onto the leaves.

More than ten spirit bees held onto the leaves carefully and flew towards the courtyard where the ye mother and daughter lived.

These spirit bees were quite intelligent. They did not act rashly. Instead, they stopped on a tree in the corner of the guest house, looking for a suitable time to poison.

At this moment, Ye Bingying walked in from outside the courtyard. She wanted to marry Fan Mingchuan, so she planned to curry favor with the ye family mother and daughter. Therefore, she came to the guest house very frequently at this stage.

Fan SUXUE did not know anyone in the Ye family, so she did not respond in a cold or warm manner.

After entering the house, Ye Bingying greeted ye Xinwan and said to fan suxue, "Suxue, there are many flowers in the back garden. There's nothing to do around here. Let me accompany you for a walk!"

Fan suxue was indeed a little bored staying in the courtyard. She nodded and left the house with Ye Bingying.

As soon as they entered the courtyard, more than ten silver ring spirit bees flew down from the trees and circled around fan suxue's head a few times before flying away.

As the incident happened suddenly and the silver ring spirit bees were extremely fast, by the time everyone reacted, the silver ring spirit bees had already disappeared.
