

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2433

Whether it was the six servants or housekeeper Fu, they all had an expression of 'f * cking SH * t'. Can't You F * cking pretend to be dead?

Let's not talk about whether you're weak or not. Are You Stupid?

If you're stupid, there won't be any smart people in this world!

Aren't you afraid of being struck by lightning if you say something that goes against your heart?

The corners of Old Master Ye's eyes twitched. He had yet to speak, he heard Yun chujiu continue, "Great-grandfather, who is it that wants to harm me? Hurry up and tell me. Otherwise, I won't be able to eat or sleep well all day long. I'm going to be scared to death."

Housekeeper fu stole a glance at Yun Chujiu's rosy face. It seemed that the matter of lying and being struck by lightning was not very accurate. Otherwise, why didn't this person get struck by lightning for lying so many times?

Old Master Ye did not hide anything and told her what he knew. Then, he stared at Yun Chujiu's expression and asked, "Little Jiu, how do you think that Su Xue and bingying girl were also struck by the salt-free powder?"

The corners of Yun Chujiu's lips curled up. "Great-grandfather, have you heard of these few words? Good and evil will always be rewarded. The Heavenly Dao is good for reincarnation. If you don't believe me, look up, who will the heavens spare? ! They have suffered retribution ! I am the favored child of the Tian Dao. They harmed me, so they will naturally suffer retribution."

Old Master Ye was almost suffocated by the rebuke, but he could not say anything. He could only take a deep breath and ask, "You didn't do this?"

Yun Chujiu's face was full of shock and innocence. "Great-grandfather, I have never left Shaohua Garden! Besides, how could I possibly poison them with my weak kung fu? Could they have poisoned themselves and then framed me? This is too shameless!"

The people in the courtyard were speechless!

They knew that there was no antidote to the salt-free powder, but fan suxue and ye Bingying still poisoned themselves. were their brains fried?

Old Master Ye felt that he shouldn't have come today. It was purely because he was causing trouble for himself. This little girl's words could choke people to death.

“Great-grandfather, I wonder what aunt and great-aunt guessed was the cause of the poisoning?” The reason why Yun Chujiu asked this was because she wanted to probe the bottom line. If they did not find the spirit bees, then she could do the same thing again in the future, if they found it, then forget it.

“They speculated that the paper wrapped in salt-free powder was blown into the backyard by the wind, and then the spirit bees treated the salt-free powder as pollen. After they got it on their claws, it was stained with dew. Then, it was an extremely coincidental coincidence that the dew got onto Bing Ying and Su Xue’s faces.”

Old Master Ye felt that this was too much of a coincidence. However, other than this explanation, there did not seem to be any other explanation. No matter how capable Little Jiu was, it was impossible for her to command the spirit bees. Moreover, she did not have the salt-free powder!

“Oh my God! It’s actually such a coincidence? TSK TSK, such a coincidental thing can happen. Looks like they really suffered retribution!” Yun Chujiu said gloatingly. She was secretly happy in her heart. These people were quite good at imagining things!

Although old master ye felt that Yun Chujiu’s gloating look was a little annoying, he could not say anything. After all, Ye Xinwan and the others had harmed others first.

Old Master Ye coughed. Only then did Yun chujiu restrain herself. Otherwise, she would be dancing with joy.

“Little Jiu Girl, how do you plan to end this? If your aunt finds out that you are not disfigured, I’m afraid she will not let this matter rest.” Old Master Ye felt that Yun Chujiu definitely had a backup plan.

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes. “Isn’t there still you? Will you just watch as my Aunt Strangles Me to death?”

Old Master Ye couldn’t help but feel a little embarrassed and angry. Although he was a little guilty, being ridiculed by a junior over and over again made his old face feel a little embarrassed.
