

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2435

"Old Miracle Doctor, I wonder if there are any clues about the antidote to the salt-free powder?" Yun Chujiu sat on the stone bench and asked with a smile.

Doctor Deng Sighed. "How could it be so easy?" "What you said the other day inspired me. I also think that the purple-blood Forsythia might really be the antidote to the salt-free powder. "But I have tried many times and failed without exception. It seems that the salt-free powder really is unsolvable."

"Old Miracle Doctor, that may not be the case. I do have an idea that might be helpful to you." Yun chujiu blinked her eyes and said mysteriously.

"Oh? What Idea?" Deng Zhongteng suddenly stood up from the stool. He was thinking about the antidote to the salt-free powder during the day and night. He was almost possessed by the devil.

"Don't get excited yet. If you think that my idea will be helpful to you, you have to agree to one condition of mine."

"What condition?"

"That is, after you successfully develop the antidote, you have to find a reason to scam the ye and fan families for a sum of at least 100 million high-grade spirit stones. At that time, we will split it 50-50."

"However, don't worry, you just have to do as I say. The fan and ye families will not find trouble with you in the future."

Doctor Deng's face was full of confusion. He felt that his brain was not enough. What did he mean? She wanted him to scam the ye family and fan family for one to one hundred million high-grade spirit stones?

The Ye family and fan family were not mentally ill. Why would they let him scam so many spirit stones?

Moreover, why did she have to give half of it to her?

"Old Miracle Doctor, my idea will definitely help you develop the antidote for the salt-free powder. Are you going to do this deal or not? If you can't develop the antidote for the salt-free powder, ye Xinwan will not let it go. You have to think carefully!" Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

Doctor Deng was so angry that he was twitching. At this moment, he finally understood that the person in front of him was not some weak little white rabbit. This was a F * cking Fox! And it was the same kind of fox with nine tails behind it!

Doctor Deng really wanted to turn around and leave, but his heart was scratched by Yun Chujiu's thoughts. He struggled in his heart for a long time, then, he gritted his teeth and said, "Think about the reason for scamming money. You have to guarantee the safety of me and the Medicine Hall."

Yun chujiu snapped her fingers. "Deal!"

“Old Miracle Doctor, do you feel that you have been deceived by me? Sigh! I was forced by the situation. You have seen it yourself. Even my biological aunt and my biological aunt wanted to ruin my appearance. Can I not be careful? “Please forgive me if I have offended you in any way!”

Yun chujia was very shrewd. Seeing that doctor Deng was a little angry, she quickly comforted him.

Doctor Deng was now on the boat of thieves. Even if he was a little dissatisfied, he could only accept it.

“Now can you tell me what you think?” Doctor Deng said unhappily.

“Although most spirit herbs are different from the secular world’s herbs that need to be processed before they can be used as medicine, there are very few that need to be processed before they can be used. Could the Purple Blood Forsythia be one of them?”

Doctor Deng was stunned for a moment before he slapped his thigh. “What you said makes sense! Why didn’t I think of that? I’ll go back and give it a try!”

When doctor Deng turned around and was about to leave, Yun chujia said softly, "Old Miracle Doctor, the wooden box that I gave you was not given to you casually!"

Doctor Deng turned around and asked again, but Yun chujia only smiled and did not say anything. Doctor Deng was so angry that he directly flung his sleeves and left.

Yun chujia looked at Doctor Deng's back and couldn't help but laugh. It was more interesting to leave some suspense. If she told him everything, he wouldn't have any sense of accomplishment.

Yun chujia jumped onto the hammock. Just as she was about to take out her notebook to read for a while, she felt the voice transmission talisman in her storage ring tremble.
