

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2436

Yun chujiu used her divine sense to take a look. It was di Beiming's voice transmission talisman.

"Little Jiu, I'll be able to reach Ye city tonight. Tell me the location of Shaohua Garden and I'll meet you there." Di Beiming's voice transmission talisman was as simple and clear as ever.

Yun chujiu almost fell off the hammock. Why did this gigolo come so suddenly? was he planning to give her a surprise?

Yun chujiu described the location of Shaohua garden to di beiming. She was not worried about di Beiming's safety. He could smash the Ye residence's door, so he was naturally not afraid of the guards of the Ye residence finding out.

Yun chujiu put down the voice transmission talisman and became a little distracted.

This guy cursed her in her heart. The more she lived, the more useless she became. She was not so nervous in the past. Why was she nervous now?

This guy remembered the dream he had last night, and his face turned red.

Then, this guy remembered the strange grass in his Dantian. Guai Cao, who hadn't been scolded for a long time, was scolded again!

Guai Cao knew that every time he was scolded, it was that big demon coming.

He felt that his life was really tough. It wasn't easy for him to find a heavenly thunder spirit root, but he didn't expect to meet a pervert. Not only that, she was even in the eyes of that big demon. There was no way for him to survive!

The six servants of Shaohua Garden felt that the little demon in their eyes was somewhat abnormal. Well, this guy had never been normal before.

But today, it looked even more abnormal. It sat in the courtyard and giggled foolishly for no reason. Sometimes, it would even cover its face with a look of embarrassment. Could it be that doctor Deng had drugged her?

Yun Chujiu wished that the sky would turn dark soon. It was not easy for her to stay up until night. She took out six pills and handed them to the servants. "Take these pills. They are very nutritious."

The six servants were so angry that they almost fainted!

They had never heard that sleeping pills could be very nutritious? !

However, they did not dare to disobey her. They swallowed the pills in their hands one after another and returned to the servants' room with difficulty.

Yun chujie checked them and saw that they had really fainted. Only then did she return to her bedroom and wait for di beiming happily.

However, it was already midnight and Di beiming still did not come.

Yun chujie frowned and was about to take out the voice transmission talisman to send a message to di beiming when the door was pushed open and di beiming walked in.

Yun chujie immediately threw herself into di beiming's arms and clung onto di beiming like a koala. She said angrily, "Didn't you say that you would come at 11 am? Why did you come so late?"

Di beiming grunted and said in a low voice, "I was delayed on the way."

Yun chujiu was filled with the joy of meeting di beiming. She did not notice di Beiming's grunt. She pouted and said, "Prince Charming, why did you come to see me all of a sudden this time? Do you want me to be heartbroken and unable to extricate myself?"

Di beiming did not say anything because he used his actions to express how much he missed her.

After the passionate kiss, Yun chujiu pounded on di Beiming's chest, she said coquettishly, "HMPH! You Pervert! When I first saw you, I knew that you were a coquettish person! On the surface, you looked very stoic and cold, but in reality, you are a big pervert."

"Hiss!" Di beiming could not help but moan.

Only then did Yun Chujiu realize that something was wrong. With the help of the moonlight, she saw that there were red blood stains on di Beiming's white clothes.

"You're injured? You Idiot! Why didn't you tell me you were injured?" Yun Chujiu felt both sorry and guilty. If she knew that he was injured, she would not have tormented him so much.
