

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2445

Everyone in the courtyard was stunned!

They clearly saw that Yun chujiu did not move at all. Furthermore, the two handmaidens were at least six to seven feet away from Yun Chujiu. How did they fly out?

Yun Chujiu was also stunned. Then, she immediately understood that it was probably di beiming's help.

This fellow's heart was filled with evil thoughts. He hugged his shoulders and snorted coldly, "Did you see that? I am the favored child of Tian Dao. You want to hit me? You are going against Tian Dao. Those two just suffered retribution."

Although fan suxue was a little shocked, she felt that Yun chujiu must have done something in the dark. Hence, she turned around and pointed at the two guards, "Capture her for me!"

The two guards shared the same thoughts as fan suxue. They also felt that Yun Chujiu's sneak attack was successful because the maid was not on guard.

The two guards walked toward Yun chujiu with guarded expressions, yun chujiu said with disdain, "You really don't turn back until you hit the wall. Come on, I don't even hide. Let's see if you can get close to me.". Humans have to know their own limits. You want to fight with Tian Dao? You really overestimate yourself!"

The two guards walked a few steps and did not find anything unusual. The two of them were even more certain that it was Yun Chujiu's little trick, so their hearts relaxed a little.

At this moment, the two of them felt a huge force coming at them, and their bodies could not help but fly out.

Their bodies also crashed into the wall of the courtyard, and a part of the wall collapsed. The two of them immediately vomited blood and passed out.

The people in the courtyard could not help but take a few steps back. If the two maids were a coincidence, then the two guards just now were all staring at them. Yun chujiu did not even move her hand, it was impossible that she did it. Could it really be the punishment of Tian Dao?

Fan suxue was shocked, angry, and a little scared. It was impossible! How could that Little B * Tch really be Tian Dao's favorite?

"A bunch of trash! This is all a little trick of that little B * TCH. All of you, attack together!" Fan suxue said to the guards of the fan family behind her angrily.

Although the guards of the fan family did not want to go forward, they did not dare to disobey and could only reluctantly move forward.

Fan suxue saw that the guards were moving slowly and scolded angrily, "If you don't hurry up, I will kill all of you!"

Yun chujiu curled the corner of her mouth, "Tsk Tsk, I really sympathize with you guards. How could you have such a Master? Why Don't you acknowledge me as your master? I will definitely not let you do stupid things that will send you to your death."

Fan suxue glared at Yun Chujiu viciously. "Little B * Tch, don't be so smug! Later, not only will I cut off your tongue, I will also reward you to these servants so that they..."

Before fan suxue could finish her words, her entire body flew out! Following that, the guards of the fan family also flew out one by one. Coincidentally, they all landed on fan suxue's body.

The guards of the fan family struggled to get up, only to see that fan suxue had long fainted. Moreover, whether it was her arm, leg, or even her ribs, they were all broken.

The guards of the fan family spat out blood as they created a soft cushion, carrying fan suxue and running away.

They now completely believed that they had really suffered retribution! Because Yun Chujiu was only a little girl at the sixth level of the Ling Xuan Realm. Even if she had some small tricks, it was impossible for her to send them flying at the same time.
