

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2456

The second grade classroom was different from the first grade classroom. The first grade classroom podium was in the middle, while the second grade classroom podium was at the front.

A huge talisman appeared on the shadow stone, and the patterns on it were clearly visible.

Teacher Yang pointed at about one-tenth of the talisman with his ring ruler and said, "We've explained this far in the last class. Have you all gone back to practice?"

Everyone naturally expressed their intention to go back to practice. Teacher Yang nodded and said, "In that case, I will select a student and let him come up to demonstrate."

Teacher Yang looked around and found that all the students were listening to him attentively. Only one student lowered his head and used his finger to draw on the table. He immediately felt a little displeased, he pointed with his finger. "That female student, come up and demonstrate."

After teacher Yang finished speaking, he heard everyone gasp and felt even more displeased. It seemed that this student must have quite a few criminal records. He raised his voice. "That female student, did you hear that?"

Yun chujiu was using her finger to draw the earth-splitting talisman when she heard he hongquan's trembling voice. "Yun, Miss Yun, teacher is calling you."

Yun Chujiu raised her head in a daze. Her gaze happened to meet teacher Yang's gaze. Teacher Yang was stunned. Wasn't this the little devil? Why did he come to the second grade? Could it be that the first grade wasn't tormented enough and he still wanted to stir up trouble in the second grade?

"Yun Chujiu, why are you here?" Most teachers wouldn't like a student like Yun chujiu who caused trouble. Teacher Yang wasn't surprised. The first thought that flashed through his mind was that this Yun chujiu was here to cause trouble!

Yun chujiu stood up and said very naturally, "I'm here to listen to the Class! The academy did not prohibit students from listening in on the class, right?"

Teacher Yang choked. The academy really did not have such a rule, but which normal person would come to the senior class to listen to the class for no reason?

"Although there is no such rule, but I am a teacher of the talisman class. If you can not meet my standards, then please leave the classroom and do not disturb the other students in class," teacher Yang said with slight annoyance.

He hongquan was just short of cheering for teacher Yang. His words were too F * cking good! Hurry up and get rid of this little devil! Otherwise, he, teacher Yang's proud student, would not be able to survive. Because his heart was filled with panic, he did not have the mood to listen to the class.

Yun chujie blinked her eyes. "Teacher Yang, you are right. You are in charge of your class. Then, may I ask, what standards do you have?"

Teacher Yang did not expect Yun chujie to agree so readily. But what criteria did she use to make things difficult for her? He thought for a moment and saw the pattern on the shadow stone. He suddenly had an idea.

"It's very simple. If you can draw a tenth of this earth-shattering talisman, then you have met the criteria. However, this drawing is not to be casually drawn. There are no pauses and no mistakes in the middle. Can you do it?" Teacher Yang said with some pride.

Everyone in the classroom clicked their tongues. It seemed that teacher Yang didn't like this Yun chujie very much. This was purely making things difficult for her.

The higher the level of the talisman, the more complicated it was. Even if it was one-tenth of the Earth splitting talisman, it was impossible to complete it without several practices.

Moreover, this little newbie Yun chujie was probably just curious and came to listen. If she could successfully draw it, it would be a miracle.

Everyone looked at Yun Chujiu. They felt that according to Yun Chujiu's personality, she would definitely act like a scoundrel! If she acted like a scoundrel and refused to go out, teacher Yang might not be able to do anything about it.
