

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2458

Teacher Yang was amused. "Yun Chujiu, if you don't know how to draw, just say it. This shadow stone has been used for thousands of years, and no one has ever raised any objections. Besides, how is there anything strange about this line?"

Although he hongquan tried his best to hold it in, his eyes were full of schadenfreude. Haha, this Yun Chujiu was really stupid. She actually dared to question the information of the shadow stone. This time, even if she acted shamelessly, she wouldn't be able to stay.

Yun chujiu glanced at the crowd and said calmly, "The lines here seem smooth, but the person who drew this talisman was probably lacking in spiritual power at that time, so the lines here are obviously weaker.

"The person who drew it may have discovered this problem later, so the lines at the back also intentionally reduced the strength. This at least ensured that the talisman was completed smoothly, but once it was activated.., the spiritual power might very well break here, and at that time, the power of the entire earth-shattering talisman would be greatly reduced."

When the students heard Yun Chujiu's words, they all scoffed. Some people could not hold it anymore and whispered,

"It seems that this Yun chujiu has been too complacent recently. Does she really think that she is the favored child of Tian Dao?"

“That’s right. Does she think that it’s drawing? And not using force at all. That’s pure nonsense!”

“A person should know their own limits. She’s really too arrogant.”

..

Teacher Yang looked at the shadow stone carelessly and then sneered, “Yun Chujiu, what you’re saying is pure nonsense! Why would I take out a problematic shadow stone to teach you guys? Get Out!”

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes, “Teacher Yang, is your memory not good? I haven’t even started drawing yet. If I can draw one-tenth of the earth-shattering talisman, what right do you have to chase me away?”

Teacher Yang choked. He was so angry that he had forgotten that there was such a thing.

“If you want to draw, hurry up and draw. Don’t waste everyone’s time,” teacher Yang said in a bad mood. He felt that Yun Chujiu was just being shameless. If she could draw it, it would be a ghost.

Then, yes, he saw a ghost!

All the students in the classroom felt that they had seen a ghost!

Yun chujiu held the one-tenth of the ground-cracking talisman in her hand and said with a smile, "Teacher Yang, do you think it meets your standards?"

boxn ov el. c o m

Teacher Yang, who had seen a ghost in broad daylight, could only grit his teeth and said, "It does. However, if you disturb the classroom discipline again, you will get out."

Yun chujiu smiled noncommittally and swaggered back to her seat.

Tears streamed down he hongquan's face. It's over! He would have to sit next to this pervert in his talisman lessons!

Yun chujiu did not have the time to bother with him. She carefully memorized the earth-shattering talisman on the shadow stone. This thing was much higher in grade than the sudden-shattering talisman, so its power must be pretty good. When she returned to the dormitory, she would definitely draw dozens of sacks of it.., so that she could torture it in the future.

However, it seemed that she did not have much talisman paper left in her storage ring. She would have to go out and buy more when it was time to rest.

Teacher Yang held back his anger and explained a part of the drawing method of the earth fissure talisman. After class, he put away the shadow stone and left angrily.

After teacher Yang returned to his office, the teachers saw that his expression was strange. Some of them asked, "Old Yang, what happened to you?"

Teacher Yang said angrily, "Don't mention it! That Yun Chujiu is that Yun chujiu who loves to stir up trouble the most. I don't know what has gotten into her, but she came to my class to listen in."