

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2464

Some students saw the way Yun chujiu shook her head and cursed in their hearts. This Yun chujiu was too willing to pretend to be a garlic!

They heard that she pretended to be a garlic in the talisman seal class yesterday and was reprimanded by her teacher. Today, she came to the alchemy class to pretend again. She was really annoying.

Although everyone hated her, no one dared to say anything. They could only hope that this little devil would not come to the alchemy class to cause trouble next time.

An hour later, everyone finished refining, but no one succeeded.

Teacher Luo was not surprised by this result. If one could successfully refine after just one look, then it would be a miracle!

“Don’t be discouraged. Refining pills requires countless practice sessions. When you go back, work on your logistics and practice. In the next class, I will personally point out the deficiencies in your refining process.”

After teacher Luo finished speaking, he signaled for the class to end.

This fellow was in such a hurry. Naturally, he was in a hurry to go back and refine the clear heart breaking adversity pill.

After Yun Chujiu returned to the dormitory, she first opened the isolation array and took out the pill furnace and fire refining stone. Just as she was about to refine it, this fellow suddenly remembered a big problem. She didn't have any medicinal herbs!

Although there were many herbs in her storage ring, including many heaven rank herbs that she had extorted from others, she didn't have the earth rank herbs that she needed for the Heart Cleansing Doom Pill.

This fellow was very regretful. If she had known earlier, she would have put away the remaining herbs on the operating table. That way, she could refine at least two batches of pills.

This fellow had selectively ignored it. Those herbs were all collected by someone, Alright? It was not like she could take them away just because she wanted to.

This guy wanted to try to refine the heart cleansing disaster pill right now. It was like a hen trying to lay an egg, but you just wouldn't let it. One could imagine how aggrieved he was!

Yun chujiu walked around the room for a few rounds. Suddenly, her eyes lit up. The fragment of the great void mirror that she had extorted from mayor Huang had not been fused yet. Perhaps after fusing the seventh fragment of the Great Void Mirror, she would be able to produce high-level herbs.

Yun Chujiu summoned Mao Qiu and handed the fragment of the great void mirror to it. "Mao Qiu, hurry up and fuse this fragment with the Great Void Mirror."

Mao Qiu was very excited, but it still reminded Yun chujiu, "Master, there will be a strange phenomenon when the great void mirror is fused with the fragment, especially since this is the seventh fragment. It will cause a huge commotion. You have to be prepared."

Yun Chujiu touched her chin. What Mao Mao Qiu said made sense. If the supreme void mirror caused a commotion, it would attract the attention of others. She knew very well that one would be punished for possessing a treasure.

This fellow thought about it and decided to fuse with the bottom of the Heavenly Dao Cliff. If that was the case, even if there was a strange phenomenon, everyone would only think that it was the Heavenly Dao Cliff's strange phenomenon.

Yun Chujiu thought of this and hurriedly ran to the Heavenly Dao Cliff.

After confirming that there was no one following her, Yun Chujiu got the Heavenly Dao cliff to bring her to the bottom of the cliff, and then she got the ball of yarn to start forming seals.

Yun chujiu finally understood what the ball of yarn was talking about!

F * ck!

This time, it was really too big!

As the ball of yarn formed seals, the great void mirror in Yun Chujiu's Dantian floated out. The seventh fragment was embedded in a gap, and then the great void mirror emitted a dazzling light, a faint sound of silk and bamboo could be heard in the sky.

It's over! It's over! Only a fool would not know that a treasure had appeared at the bottom of the valley! When that time came, many people would definitely think of ways to go down to the bottom of the valley to search for treasures.
