

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2473

Teacher Qi took out a shadow stone. On it was a magnified ice talisman.

Teacher Qi glanced at Yun Chujiu. Seeing that she did not raise any objections, he heaved a sigh of relief. Oh My God, if this were to become a joke like teacher Yang, it would be so embarrassing.

Teacher Qi took the ruler and began to explain the ice talisman. He explained it in great detail. He estimated that he could only explain about one-tenth of it in a class.

Yun chujiu did not have the patience to take ten lessons. While she was memorizing the drawing method of the ice talisman, she used her fingers to draw on the table.

During the break in teacher Qi's lecture, she caught a glimpse of Yun Chujiu's movements, and she did not agree with it.

This Yun chujiu was a little too impatient. She should listen carefully in class and practice slowly when she went back. Maybe it was just a coincidence that she pointed out the flaws in the shadow stone last time?

When the class ended, teacher Qi asked Yun Chujiu to stay.

“Yun Chujiu, how did you find the problem with the Earth Fissure Talisman Shadow Stone Last Time?”

“Because I like drawing! I saw that the color of the blood of the Line Demon Beast was lighter than the one on it, so I guessed that the spiritual power was weakened,” Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

Teacher Qi: “...”

Teacher Qi was very disappointed. He thought that Yun Chujiu had the talent of talisman, but he didn't expect it to be a coincidence.

In the following days, Yun Chujiu started to run amok among all the grades. Although some teachers didn't like her, the Academy's Rules didn't prohibit students from skipping classes, so they could only turn a blind eye.

Yun chujiu was simply enjoying it. She felt that this teaching method was suitable for her, or else it would be a waste of time.

Yun chujiu was in a good mood, and a certain Xiu's mood was simply broken!

What happened to eight days to recover?

It had already been eighteen days, wasn't it? ! Why was it still aiming? ! !

Yun Chujiu was also very puzzled. Could it be that this transformation pill was used on Demon Beasts to have a permanent medicinal effect? It could never be recovered?

Yun Chujiu did not mind. After all, it was a spiritual pet that was exchanged for a meat bun. So what if it was a kitten? She could just keep it for fun!

On this day, Yun Chujiu went to the class as usual. This time, she went to the Second Grade's Beast Taming class.

Because the beast taming technique was somewhat useless, many students mainly chose to cultivate pills or talismans. They chose to cultivate the beast taming technique only for the sake of having the opportunity to tame demon beasts as spiritual pets in the future.

After he hongquan saw Yun Chujiu, he tried his best to hide in the crowd, afraid that Yun Chujiu would find fault with him.

He was really thinking too much. At this time, Yun Chujiu's attention was all focused on the demonic bird house. Yes, those eggs.

This guy swallowed his saliva. It had been a long time since he ate egg custard. He would definitely go to the cafeteria and order one at night..

Some of the demonic bird eggs were about to hatch. When they felt the gaze of the wolves, they couldn't help but tremble. Some even rolled into the nest.

Some of the students said in surprise, "Look! Why are the eggs moving? Are they going to Hatch?"

"That's not right. Didn't the sign on it say the estimated time of Hatch? There's still a month to go!"

"Then what's going on? Why are the eggs moving all of a sudden? Let's hurry up and report to teacher you."

..

Yun chujju touched her chin guiltily. Could it be because of her? She was just thinking about it. She did not really want to use these eggs to make egg custard.

However, these eggs should taste much better than the red feather eggs in the canteen. Why not take a few back and give it a try?

The eggs trembled even more when they felt the burning gaze. Some of them even began to peck at the eggshells. They were actually born prematurely!
