

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2474

Teacher you rushed over in a hurry. When he saw the performance of the demonic bird eggs, he was also very puzzled. Why did they break their shells so early?

Originally, he had wanted to let the students practice with these demonic bird eggs. It seemed that it wouldn't work, so he could only try to find some young demonic beasts.

Teacher you brought the students to the front of a beast house. There were some young demonic beasts inside, and there was a formation separating them in the middle to prevent them from biting each other.

Teacher you said some things to take note of, then said, "Each of you choose a young cub and start practicing!"

Because these young demonic beasts were not very strong, teacher you was not worried that the students would be in danger.

The students all chose their targets and started practicing. Yun chujui was not interested in these young demonic beasts, so she just watched the show from the side.

Seeing this, teacher you just shook his head and did not say anything. After all, this Yun chujui was only here to freeload, so he could not criticize her.

After watching for a while, Yun Chujiu felt very bored. If she had known that the beast taming class was so boring, she would have stayed in the dormitory to cultivate.

After enduring for two hours with great difficulty, the Beast Taming class finally ended.

The students were all talking about their experiences and lessons just now. No one knew who took the lead, but they began to show off their respective Spirit Beasts.

“Mine is a thirty-second level iron-bone earth-splitting red-clawed bear. I caught it with great difficulty.”

“Tch! Only thirty-second level? Mine is a thirty-fourth level red-flame long-tailed tiger, two levels higher than yours!”

“What’s running on the ground? Mine is a spreading-wing red-flame crane. It can be used as a flying spirit tool.”

As everyone was talking, the topic of conversation somehow changed to Yun Chujiu. Someone asked, "Junior Yun, What's Your Spirit Pet?"

Yun chujiu wanted to say that she didn't have a spiritual pet at all. However, she smiled and said, "My spiritual pet is definitely one in ten thousand. You must not have seen it before."

Everyone's curiosity was piqued by her. They clamored for Yun chujiu to be released so that they could see it for themselves.

Yun chujiu curled her lips. "Alright, since you're so enthusiastic, I'll let you have an eye-opening experience."

As Yun Chujiu spoke, she released the Fire Eating Xiu.

When everyone saw the kittens on the ground, they were instantly dumbfounded!

The kittens of the fire-breathing cats?

Yun Chujiu's spiritual pet was actually a tier 4 fire-breathing cat kittens?

Was she crazy? !

Even if she wasn't picky about food, she still had to get a Tier 30 demonic beast as her spiritual pet. Could This tier 4 be considered a spiritual pet?

The Fire Eating Xiu on the ground felt everyone's disdainful gaze and wanted to bang its head against the wall.

Meow Meow, it bet a hundred dried fish. That damned smelly girl must have done it on purpose!

Hearing the commotion over here, teacher you also walked over curiously. Seeing the kitten on the ground, he looked at Yun Chujiu sympathetically.

No wonder this Yun Chujiu wanted to come to the beast taming class. It was probably because she wanted to exchange for a high-level demon beast. It was also true. Any other one would be much better than this fourth-level kitten.

Fire Eating Xiu was so angry that it wanted to die, however, Yun chujiu still sighed and said, "Sigh, did you all see it? My spiritual pet is this little thing. There's no choice. I'm a person who values friendship and loyalty. Back then, it had always accompanied me in the Qing Xuan Continent. I Can't just throw it away."

When the students learned the “Truth”, they immediately lamented that Yun Chujiu really valued friendship and loyalty. She was really too kind. She actually treated her spiritual pet so well. This cat cub could be considered to have met a good master.

“Aim — aim...”they were so angry that they couldn’t live anymore!

Everyone was talking and laughing as they walked out. No one noticed that when the fire eating Xiu called out, the demon beasts were all trembling. Some of them even prostrated on the ground, looking like they were submitting.
