

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2500

Some people once again complained about Yun Chujiu. They felt that it was because of her decision that everyone was in trouble.

However, they were shocked by Yun Chujiu's previous actions. Although they were displeased, they did not dare to say it out loud.

Yun chujiu frowned. She had still underestimated the brute strength of these monsters. They could even shake a mountain. How could there be such a monster in this heavenly Luo secret territory?

Of course, now was not the time to think about this. The most important thing now was to get out of the current predicament.

If they waited here, there would only be one outcome waiting for them, and that was to be crushed to death by the rocks.

However, if they rushed out, they would only die.

Although her large kitchen knife could cut off the monster's limbs, there was only one large kitchen knife, so its effect was limited.

Moreover, the tunnel was narrow, so there were so many people, so they would not be able to rush out in a short time.

The situation was in a stalemate. Everyone avoided the falling rocks while looking at Yun chujju anxiously.

Some people could not stand the torture and rushed into the tunnel like crazy. They were hoping to get lucky. The Monsters' attention was on the stone wall, so they might be able to rush out.

However, not long after, the screams of those people were heard. Apparently, they had been killed by the monsters.

Yun chujju had never encountered such a helpless situation. was there really no solution to this situation?

There was definitely no way out from the front. It would be great if there was a back door!

Wait!

Back Door?

Yun chujiu held a large kitchen knife and knocked on the surrounding rock walls. She tried to cut down a rock, and her eyes immediately lit up.

The Rock in this mountain was not particularly hard. Perhaps she could really cut out a back door because she had Xiao Hei!

Moreover, among the demonic beasts that she had contracted before, there were also many demonic beasts that were good at digging holes. As long as she dug out a side tunnel, they would be able to escape from the encirclement of the monsters without anyone noticing and then find another place to hide.

Thinking of this, Yun Chujiu said to the crowd, "Which of your spiritual beasts knows how to dig holes? Quickly release them and listen to my arrangements."

Needless to say, there were indeed a few people who knew how to dig holes and released them one after another.

Although the crowd felt that Yun Chujiu's method was not bad, they felt that it would probably take a few days to dig a tunnel with just a few demon beasts. By then, the daylily would have turned cold and they would have died long ago.

At this moment, Yun Chujiu raised her hand, and a sky drill ground mouse was released. With another wave of her hand, another sky drill ground mouse was released..

Yun Chujiu released the demonic beasts, and each of them was a demonic beast that was good at digging holes.

Everyone was so shocked that their mouths could not close. How Could Yun chujiu have so many demonic beasts?

“These demonic beasts were saved by me when I was running away. They are also afraid of those monsters. I am a soft-hearted person. I thought that since they are all living creatures, I will help them if I Can!”Yun chujiu said with a compassionate tone.

Hearing Yun Chujiu’s words, everyone nodded in realization. So that was the case. Just like that, how could a person contract so many spiritual beasts? So it was a convenient rescue.

Some lackeys took the opportunity to praise Yun chujiu a few times, saying things like kindness, kindness, and good karma.

Those demonic beasts almost fainted from anger!

She was soft-hearted? Who was the one who tortured them to the point that they suspected that the beasts were giving birth? Who was the one who forcefully established a temporary contract with them?

However, it was also true. If it wasn't for her keeping them in the spirit beast pouch, they might really have been eaten by those monsters.
