

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2512

Yun Chujiu's head was buzzing. Think of a way? Think of a way?

She had already used all her strength to attack the black fog with her spiritual sense, but there was no way to completely destroy it in a short period of time. How could she stop it from self-destructing?

In a moment of desperation, Yun chujiu used her hand to tear apart the black fog. This fellow's idea was very simple. The balloon would naturally break after it was pierced through. The Black Fog would make it split into two, so it would not be able to explode.

The result was obvious. The Black Fog was not solid, and Yun Chujiu's plan to tear the black fog apart completely failed, she was ridiculed by the monster. "Hiss, hiss! Stupid Girl, do you know fear? As long as you stop your spiritual sense attack and let me out, I will stop self-destructing. Otherwise, all of you present will die!"

Yun chujiu ignored it. All sorts of ideas flashed through her mind. If she could not tear it apart with her hands, her spiritual sense attack would not be effective for a while. What should she do?

The black fog saw that not only did Yun chujiu not stop her attack, but her attack became even more intense. It was instantly angered from embarrassment, and the Black Fog began to expand rapidly.

Seeing this, Yun Chujiu was furious. She did not care about anything else and opened her mouth to suck in the black fog.

The great void mirror in her Dantian was so angry that it almost turned into a corpse!

Was this guy afraid that she would not die thoroughly enough? If the black fog expanded in her body, she would be blown into pieces!

Just as the great void mirror was thinking about this, Yun chujiu said with her spiritual sense, "Listen up, the three of you. If you don't think of a way to deal with this monster, you will become homeless stray dogs!"

Guai Cao in her dantian:"..."

Black bead in her Dantian:"..."

Supreme Void Mirror in her Dantian:"..."

Are you crazy? !

What does this have to do with them? ! This is like pushing a duck onto the rack!

Yun chujiu was very calculating in her heart. Since the supreme void mirror could see that the monster was about to explode, there must be a way to stop it.

Moreover, the guai Cao could be ignored. The black bead usually ate everything except for food. It was time for it to contribute!

Finally, Yun Chujiu was not stupid. Of course, she would not risk her life to not swallow the black fog. She only swallowed a part of it to test the reaction of the three in her dantian before making her next move.

When the Black Mist saw Yun chujiu biting it with her mouth, it was dumbfounded!

It had thought of many possibilities, but it did not expect Yun chujiu to actually want to suck it into her stomach. was there something wrong with this stupid girl's head? !

Wasn't she courting death?

But it was fine. Since she was courting death, she would fulfill her wish!

Therefore, the small portion of the black mist that was swallowed by Yun Chujiu was going to sneak into Yun Chujiu's Dantian. As long as she blew up the stupid girl's Dantian, she would die. Once this stinky girl died, the remaining humans and demonic beasts were nothing to be afraid of.

The monster thought very well, but when it reached Yun Chujiu's Dantian, it was dumbfounded!

F * CK, was this a human's Dantian? ! Whose Dantian was filled with purple lightning? ! If it entered the dantian, it would be suicide!

The monster quickly wanted to run back. No matter what, any place was much safer than the Dantian. It was quite wishful thinking. Before it could run, it was sucked into the Dantian by a huge suction force.

Then, there was no then!

Countless purple lightning bolts struck the black fog clean, as if nothing had happened.
