

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2533

This fellow took out a handkerchief to wipe his mouth, and then stood up.

Dean Gongsun and the others were at the same table as her. When they saw this fellow stand up, they were all shocked. This little girl didn't want to toast again, so why did she stand up?

Especially when Old Master Ye's heart was in his throat. Little Jiu, what are you going to do this time?

Before Old Master Ye could stop her, he discovered that his great-granddaughter had already jumped to the first table, which was the table where Master Baili, Master Xiahou, and Alliance Master Yan were at.

Alliance Master Yan and the other two had special identities, so there were only the three of them at this table. The three of them were also stunned when they saw Yun Chujiu. What was this little girl doing here? Could it be that she wanted to propose a toast? But she didn't have a wine cup in her hands either?

For a moment, the banquet hall suddenly fell silent. Everyone's gaze turned towards Yun Chujiu. Old Master Ye's old heart almost stopped from fright. What exactly did this little jiu want to do?

"Seniors, this junior is very honored to be able to meet all of you this time. I originally wanted to come over to propose a toast, but I don't know how to drink wine. Using tea as a substitute for wine also felt insincere. "So, so, this is just a small token of my appreciation, please accept it."

The three of them looked at Yun Chujiu in confusion, only to see Yun Chujiu take out three oil paper packets from her storage ring, and then respectfully handed them to Alliance Master Yan and the other two.

The three of them curiously opened the oil paper packets, and saw that inside were some small fruits that looked like coral beads. Although they looked very pleasing, they almost didn't have any spirit energy.

"This wild fruit is called coral fruit. It is a kind of wild fruit from the Qing Xuan continent. It should be considered the lowest grade of spiritual fruit. Seniors, I know that you usually eat high-grade spiritual fruits, so you might not like this kind of small wild fruit.

"However, I gave this kind of fruit for a reason. Back then, I did not have spiritual power and could not cultivate. It was only after I ate this kind of fruit that I was able to slowly cultivate. I always felt that this fruit brought me good luck. This was a kind of lucky fruit.

Therefore, even though it didn't taste particularly good, I had stored a lot of it in my storage ring. I felt that if this was the case, luck would be able to look after me forever.

Therefore, therefore, I planned to give this coral fruit to all the seniors, I hope that everyone will always be lucky." Yun Chujiu's face became redder and redder as she spoke. It was obvious that she was very embarrassed. In the end, she didn't dare to look at Alliance Master Yan and the other two.

Alliance Master Yan probably felt that Yun Chujiu had taken the blame for him twice today, so he smiled and said, "You little girl, you really have a pure and kind heart. I haven't eaten wild fruits for many years. It's not bad to try it today. It can also be considered to be a bittersweet memory."

As Alliance Master Yan spoke, he picked up a few coral fruits and put them into his mouth. Although they were not considered delicious, the sour and sweet ones were not bad.

Master Baili and Master Xiahou also ate a few of them symbolically. Although they did not praise Yun Chujiu, their faces were still fine. It was clear that they had a good impression of Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu's small face was flushed with excitement, she said incoherently, "I, I am really too excited! I thought that the three seniors were unattainable. I did not expect that they actually ate my lucky fruit. "Then, then can you help me sign an autograph as a motivation to motivate me to move forward?"

Alliance Master Yan couldn't help but laugh. He casually took out a jade pendant and said, "There's no need for an autograph. I'll give this misty cloud jade pendant to you as a reward. Cultivate well."

A certain Jiu's heart was filled with joy. Aiyo, she had been waiting for this sentence!

Yun Chujiu decided to cross out Alliance Master Yan from the Black Account Book. This was really a godly assistance.

How could she eat these coral fruits for free? She had to pay some shipping fees, okay?
