

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2534

A certain Jiu's heart was bursting with joy, but her face was flushed red as she declined: "This, this isn't good, right? It makes it seem like I'm not giving out fruits. Instead, I'm selling fruits."

"An elder's gift can not be refused. This and fruits are two different things." Seeing Yun chujiu like this, Alliance Master Yan felt that although this little girl was eloquent, but her heart was really kind and not greedy.

Yun chujiu had no choice but to put away the jade pendant "Awkwardly", and she looked very embarrassed.

When Sect Master Baili and Sect Master Xiahou saw that Alliance Master Yan had given her something, they naturally couldn't just stand by and watch, so they also gave Yun chujiu an upper-grade spirit weapon.

Yun Chujiu's face was filled with gratitude, but in her heart, she ridiculed, damn it! As the two sect masters of a Super Sect, was it really good to be so stingy? Shouldn't he at least reward her with an immortal artifact?

This fellow didn't even think about it. Her oil-wrapped coral fruit was only worth a few low-grade spirit stones at most, and she even thought of exchanging it for an immortal artifact?

"Seniors, please eat a few more coral fruits. Otherwise, I really can't bear it in my heart."

Alliance Master Yan and the other two gave her some face and ate a few more. Yun Chujiu felt that it was enough to detoxify the poison, so she respectfully took her leave.

Then, this guy walked to another table and repeated the same process. Ah, no, he gave her a fruit.

Those people saw that the three big shots were giving this little girl face, so they naturally couldn't refuse. They took a few pills as a token, and then gave her a spirit weapon.

Even the head of the fan family also gave Yun chujiu a high-grade spirit weapon with a gloomy face. Although he didn't like Yun Chujiu, it wasn't good for him to go against the three big shots.

Yun chujiu cursed in her heart. Go back and be secretly happy! If it wasn't for me, you'd be waiting to be dealt with by others!

Dean Gongsun and Old Master Ye's faces were stiff. They saw Yun chujiu shuttling around the banquet hall like a butterfly, then used some broken wild fruits to exchange for a large pile of high-grade spirit weapons.

Old Master Ye Knew Yun Chujiu's background and cursed in his heart. This little brat! It must be intentional. To be greedy to this extent, he really wanted money but didn't want his life!

However, he couldn't help but admire this great granddaughter of his. With her flawless tongue, she actually used a few broken wild fruits to exchange for a pile of high-grade spirit tools. It was also amazing.

Everyone gave Yun Chujiu high-grade spirit tools. After all, they were all reputable people. If they gave her too poorly, they would feel bad.

Thus, this guy had used a few baskets of coral fruits to exchange for a bunch of high-grade spirit tools. It was simply beautiful.

Fortunately, this guy knew that a rabbit wouldn't eat grass near its nest, so he didn't ask Dean Gongsun and the others for spirit tools.

Yun chujiu knew that the guards of these people were probably also affected, but she was helpless. If she said anything more, it would be too easy to expose herself.

In any case, these mighty figures were fine, so the other party's conspiracy could not succeed. As for the guards, they could only blame themselves for being too careless and admit that they were unlucky!

When Yun Chujiu sent the coral fruit, she deliberately observed everyone's reaction and did not find anything wrong.

There were two possibilities. One was that there were indeed no people from the Divine Devil Hall. The second was that the people from the Divine Devil Hall did not know that the coral fruit was the antidote to the poison. After all, an ordinary antidote could only be refined.

Yun Chujiu felt that the second possibility was more likely. After all, the guai Cao was too abnormal. It could find the antidote to many poisons that were thought to have no antidote.

This was also good. When the time came, the Divine Devil Hall would not suspect her. They would only think that there was a mistake in the poisoning.
