

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2543

The Cao family head's face was slightly unnatural. Alright, he really intended to snatch it. After all, the Spirit Stone Mine was money!

"Senior Cao, do you think that the fan family's flying spirit tool has also been blocked by the Divine Devil Hall? Should we go and help?" Yun Chujiu said slyly.

The Cao family head's heart moved. This was a good opportunity to mock that old fellow, Fan Zhenqing. Anyway, even if he didn't go, that old fellow would probably be able to escape. However, he had to make him owe him a favor.., let's see how he would have the face to speak of the Cao family in the future.

"What the little girl said makes sense. Although I don't get along with that old fellow, Fan Zhenqing, we still have to help each other in the face of a great enemy.". Everyone, this old man has a presumptuous request. Can We Go and take a look at that old fellow, Fan Zhenqing, before returning to the Cao Family?"

Dean Gongsun and the others naturally would not refuse, especially old master ye. He had long wanted to propose to save the fan family, but was too embarrassed to open his mouth.

Yun chujiu thought to herself, didn't that old bastard fan Zhenqing say that I was lying? ! She wanted to see where his old face would go this time!

The Cao family and the fan family were very close. Logically speaking, the two families should be on the same path, but because the two families were enemies, they deliberately avoided each other. However, the distance was not too far.

Everyone quickly discovered that there were people fighting on the ground. To be exact, there were dozens of people attacking one person.

The head of the Cao family stretched his neck and shouted excitedly, "Fan Zhenqing, do you need help? Beg Me, as long as you beg me, I will help you kill those people!"

Dean Gongsun and the others couldn't bear to look at him. As the head of a super aristocratic family, was it really okay to be so childish?

Yun chujiu was enjoying the show. She couldn't wait for the head of the Cao family to taunt the head of the fan family a few more times. It would be best if that old thing fainted from anger.

The head of the fan family was naturally extremely happy when he saw that he had reinforcements. However, when he heard the words of the head of the Cao family, he was so angry that he almost died. He would rather escape with some serious injuries than owe the Cao family a favor.

The silver-masked man who was fighting with the head of the fan family was obviously smarter than the previous two. Seeing that the situation was not good, he did not wait for Yun Chujiu and the others' flying spirit weapons to land before he used a secret technique to escape.

The remaining black-masked men were completely defeated, and they were quickly taken care of by Mayor Huang and the others.

None of the guards of the fan family survived. They were all killed by the people of the Divine Devil Hall, and the ground was littered with dead bodies. The head of the fan family was panting heavily. One was tired, and the other was angry. He wished that he could pass out right away.

“TSK TSK, why is the head of the fan family in such a sorry state? Fortunately, I came to save you despite the past enmity. Otherwise, I’m afraid that your fan family would be leaderless!”The head of the Cao family said with a fake smile.

The head of the fan family was so angry that he almost died. “Cao Menghai, you, don’t make sarcastic remarks! Even if you didn’t come, I would still be able to get rid of these useless people.”

“TSK tsk, dog biting Lu Dongbin is exactly what you said! We came all the way here to save you, yet we are said to be unnecessary. It really makes me feel cold in my heart!”

“You, you!”The head of the fan family was so angry that he didn’t know what to say. After all, the truth was that he was indeed saved by the head of the Cao family.

Although the head of the fan family was a hundred times unwilling, he still got on the flying spirit tool of the head of the Cao family. After all, his life was more important.

Yun chujia did not add fuel to the fire. She was not stupid. If the head of the fan family were to vent his anger on her, it would not be worth it.

Two days later, the reinforcements of the Cao and fan families arrived.

The head of the fan family said a few polite words with a stiff face and then left.
