

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2555

Yun chujia put Xiao Mogu into her spiritual beast bag and took out a large kitchen knife to cut at the Earth fire pipeline.

The earth fire pipeline was built with special materials. It was impossible for ordinary weapons to destroy it, but it was not difficult to use the kitchen knife that was essential for living and traveling.

With two clangs, a hole was cut in the pipeline, and the earth fire inside gushed out. The things on the operating table were instantly swallowed by the Earth Fire.

"Are you, are you crazy? !"Teacher Wen shouted in exasperation.

Yun chujia bared her little white teeth at him and threw a basin of rapeseed oil at him and the red-horned bloodthirsty Viper. Although teacher Wen used the spiritual energy barrier to block the rapeseed oil outside, the moment the rapeseed oil fell to the ground, the Earth fire instantly became bigger, and the entire room became a sea of fire.

Teacher Wen gritted his teeth and withdrew the array formation, wanting to rush out of the door.

How Could Yun chujia let him escape? While letting the little black bird curse, she threw out a big sack.

Teacher Wen stumbled. Before he could stand up, he felt something smashing towards him. He hurriedly jumped to the side and awkwardly dodged the attack. However, he did not expect a pungent smell to instantly envelop him.

Teacher Wen was choked with tears and Snot. A certain jiu, who was wearing a gas mask, began to attack teacher Wen with her spiritual pig. As for the red-horned bloodthirsty snake, it had already been burned to the ground and rolled on the ground. It was not a threat at all.

Teacher Wen's eyes were so choked that he could not even open them. He could only randomly choose a direction to rush out of the house.

Unfortunately, he was too unlucky and just happened to jump to where a certain Jiu was. A certain Jiu was already holding a large kitchen knife and waiting. She raised her hand and the knife fell. Teacher Wen died immediately.

Because teacher Wen had just removed the array, the earth fire had already spread to other houses. The entire courtyard was filled with flames that soared into the sky and were particularly eye-catching in the night.

Yun chujiu went outside the courtyard and stared at the courtyard filled with flames with an inexplicable expression. She had been careless and had to be more cautious in the future.

Very soon, many people ran over to put out the fire.

When the crowd saw Yun chujiu standing at the entrance of the courtyard, although they were very curious, no one dared to ask.

Some teachers and students with water spirit roots began to put out the fire. In fact, the fire had almost burned out, and there was no other courtyard next to the courtyard. Even if they didn't help, the fire wouldn't burn anywhere.

When Dean Gongsun arrived, only the earth fire pipe was still burning, and everything in the surroundings had been completely burned.

Everyone found two storage rings in the ashes. Dean Gongsun found teacher Wen and Zhu Jingtong's identity jade tokens, as well as two jade tokens engraved with the Resurrection Lily.

Dean Gongsun suddenly understood. These two people were probably trying to harm Yun chujiu, but in the end, they were burned to death by the Earth Fire. However, this earth fire did not have eyes. How could it only burn those two, but this little girl was safe and sound?

Although Dean Gongsun was puzzled in his heart, he did not ask Yun Chujiu. Ever since the incident of the attack of the Divine Devil Hall, for some reason, Dean Gongsun had become somewhat fearful of Yun Chujiu in his heart.

He had a feeling that Yun chujiu seemed to know that there would be people from the Divine Devil Hall on the way to kill them. Moreover, the little girl's methods really made people's backs turn cold.

Moreover, this fellow had already left a deep impression on alliance master Yan of the Sky Bearing Alliance and the head of the Cao family. In addition, a great grandfather Huang had appeared out of nowhere, and the fan family seemed to have the intention of letting Fan Mingchuan marry her, he really could not afford to provoke her.

Therefore, Dean Gongsun felt that as long as this Yun chujiu did not do anything that would endanger the sky punisher academy, she could do whatever she wanted!

Dean Gongsun was looking forward to the time when the primordial chaos sect would recruit new disciples and send this ancestor away as soon as possible.
