

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2575

Xue Wuji nodded when he heard Yun Chujiu's words. "Alright, we'll listen to your arrangements then. Let's set off!"

The four of them headed east. Yun chujiu would occasionally stop and instruct the three of them to dig out the roots of some plants. Although the roots they dug out were not very big, it was better than nothing.

This demonic beast forest was obviously meticulously designed. So far, not a single wild fruit had been found, so these roots were especially precious.

Everyone carefully put the roots they dug out into the small basket.

The small basket was woven by Yun chujiu using branches. The inside was covered with wide leaves, so she was not afraid that the things inside would leak out.

Without their spiritual power, it was easy for them to get tired. After walking for more than four hours, they began to pant. A certain jiu, on the other hand, was fine.

Seeing that the three of them could not walk anymore, Yun Chujiu could only take a break.

The four of them ate some roots and drank a little of the juice of the vines. They finally felt a little better.

“It’s only been a few hours, and I already feel more tired than killing a high-level demon beast. Ten Days is too long.”Ye Bingyu sighed.

Yun chujiu bared her little white teeth. “Although the Primordial Chaos Sect’s test is a little damaged, this kind of test is also necessary. “Firstly, it is to test everyone’s physical strength, and secondly, it is to test everyone’s adaptability. “Some people have been neglecting their movement techniques and physical strength. This round of test can give everyone some warning.

“I am becoming more and more fond of the primordial chaos sect. After entering the sect, life will definitely be very interesting.”

Everyone was already immune to Yun Chujiu’s mysterious self-confidence, so they automatically ignored her last sentence.

After the four of them rested, they continued to walk east.

Until the sun set, they did not find any food other than water and roots. However, fortunately, they did not encounter any demon beasts.

Yun Chujiu felt that the designer of the test would not release the demon beasts so early. He would definitely wait until everyone's stamina was almost exhausted before releasing the demon beasts.

Jin Zhi and the other two looked at each other. There was a huge problem in front of them now, and that was fire.

When they had spiritual power, they could use the firestones or fire talismans in their storage rings to start a fire. If they had fire spiritual roots, it would be more convenient. With a wave of their hands, they would be able to create a fireball.

However, what should they do now? How could they raise the fire?

It was cold at night in the forest. If there was no fire, they would definitely shiver from the cold. Besides, raising a bonfire could also prevent some demon beasts from ambushing.

Yun chujiu smiled smugly. Wasn't this simple? Drilling Wood to make fire!

Of course, drilling wood to make fire sounded simple, but it was quite difficult to operate. Therefore, Yun chujiu let Xue Wuji operate while she commanded from the side.

Xue Wuji felt that his hands were almost worn out. The spark finally ignited the dry moss on the ground and then lit the firewood below.

The four of them looked at the bonfire and could not help but smile at each other. Sometimes, when a person was in a difficult situation, a bonfire could bring great excitement and satisfaction to them.

After a while, Yun Chujiu moved the bonfire away and spread thick leaves on it, indicating that everyone could rest.

Everyone laid on the bonfire and felt warm. They admired Yun Chujiu so much that they prostrated themselves on the ground.

Everyone took turns to be on night duty. That night, nothing happened. There were no demonic beasts that came to ambush them.

The next day, everyone extinguished the bonfire and continued heading east.

As they had only eaten a few roots, and the quantity was still limited, everyone's stamina decreased very quickly. The speed of their journey became slower and slower.

Yun chujiu frowned. If this continued, it wouldn't be good. They had to think of a way to fill their stomachs.
