

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2579

This was impossible!

Weren't the other contestants all in a sorry state? How could they be so carefree?

There was even barbecued meat to eat? Wild Fruits? Even hammocks?

Where did they get it? Could it be that a blind cat met a dead rat and picked up the corpse of a Demon Beast? Yes, it must be so!

The Shadow Stone that was supposed to be played in turn froze on Yun Chujiu and the other three under the strong request of the crowd. Almost everyone's attention was focused on the Shadow Stone No. 9.

"It's only been two days, there are still eight days left! They won't be so lucky all the time, just wait and See!"

"Exactly, that little girl actually built a hammock. She's really a demon. Just wait and see, in the end, they will either starve to death or die of thirst! Of course, it's more likely that they will be bitten to death by the Demon Beasts."

“Right, we’ll just watch from here. Who knows, they might be bitten to death by Demon Beasts Tomorrow!”

Elder Linghu stood at the side and frowned. Had this little girl offended these people? Why did they wish for this little girl to be eliminated?

Elder Linghu thought about it and understood a little in his heart. These people probably saw that although the little girl’s spirit energy was low, she had earned a lot of money, so the red-eyed illness had struck.

Elder Linghu shook his head slightly. She was really narrow-minded. However, this little girl’s good luck was probably about to run out. Could she live past ten days?

Yun chujiu did not know that she had once again become the focus of attention. Of course, even if she knew, this fellow would not take it to heart.

Another two days passed, and it was the fifth day of the second round of the test.

At this time, half of the participants in the test had already been eliminated. A small portion died from thirst and starvation, while a large portion died from the attacks of demonic beasts.

Yun chujiu took stock of their remaining items. They should still have enough to eat for a day. It seemed that they needed to find more food as soon as possible.

The further east they went, the more luxuriant the vegetation on the ground was. However, there were very few edible species. Although there was a type of slender wild grass that was non-toxic, they were not rabbits. They really could not digest this type of wild grass that had too high a fiber content.

Just as Yun chujiu was frowning, she felt the ground tremble slightly.

Yun chujiu waved her hand, and everyone quickly climbed up the big tree beside her. Through the gaps of the leaves, they carefully looked outside.

Not long after, two level 5 wind blade short-tailed wolves walked over.

A gloating voice sounded in the square of the mixed origin sect, "Hahaha! They are really unlucky! Not to mention two, they can't even handle one."

“That’s right, the only reason they managed to survive for 5 days is because they were lucky! It Won’t be long before they die!”

“Hahaha!”! I’m dying of laughter! That Lass actually planned to use a wooden bow to shoot the 2 wind-edge short-tailed wolves, what a fool! If an arrow made of wood could kill a wind-edge short-tailed wolf, it would be a legend!”

Elder Linghu shook his head slightly. If it was a normal beast, using a wooden arrow might be useful, but to a level 4 short-tailed wolf, a wooden arrow could not hurt them at all.

Just as elder Linghu was thinking, he saw Yun chujiu shoot the wooden arrow in her hand, hitting the left eye of one of the wolves.

However, it only pierced the left eye of the short-tailed wolf a little, and did not shoot it in.

This time, the wind blade short-tailed wolf was completely enraged and fired a few wind blades at the big tree where Yun Chujiu was hiding.

Everyone gloated over Yun Chujiu’s misfortune and thought that the little girl was dead for sure!
