

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2586

This guy didn't even think about it. Everyone was teleported alone. How was she going to help? Well, this guy had this kind of mysterious confidence.

Yun Chujiu was stroking her chin as her thoughts ran wild. The five golden-spotted hurricane leopards were a little confused.

This little girl seemed to be sick, right? Most people would either be afraid of them or fight them. Why was she in a Daze?

Roar! Roar! Roar!

Is this really okay?

Can't you pay attention to your opponent?

Yun chujiu heard the roars of the five golden spotted hurricane leopards and finally came back to her senses. She looked at them lazily, then, she asked, "Hey, do you know how to go to other areas? Take Me to my friend!"

Ten Thousand Divine Beasts whizzed past the hearts of the five golden spotted hurricane leopards! They never dreamed that this little girl would ask them such a request.

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes. "I know! You are array beasts created by the array formation, so you are a little dumber than normal demonic beasts, so it's normal that you don't know where the border is. Forget it, I shouldn't have imagined you guys to be so powerful. It's really disappointing!"

The five golden spotted hurricane leopards looked at each other and snorted disdainfully.

"Hey, are you still not convinced? Then tell me where the border is and how to go to other areas. TSK, TSK, are you bragging?" Yun chujiu crossed her arms and said disdainfully.

One of the golden spotted hurricane leopards ran away while the other four chased Yun chujiu, indicating to follow the golden spotted hurricane leopard in front.

Yun Chujiu said that she didn't believe it, but in her heart, she was overjoyed! That's right, demonic beasts were cuter than humans! Even the formation beasts that were formed were cuter than humans!

Yun Chujiu was chased away by the five golden-spotted Hurricane Leopards for fifteen minutes, and she found a big tree full of yellow flowers.

The leader of the golden-spotted hurricane leopards used his tail to Pat the big tree, and the yellow flowers on it drifted down, looking quite beautiful.

Yun chujiu understood that this tree was probably the eye of the formation between the various regions.

Yun chujiu nodded. "It seems that you guys are indeed very smart. Now, I'll give you two choices. One is to voluntarily establish a temporary contract with me, and the other is to be forced to establish a temporary contract with me. Which do you guys choose?"

The five golden spotted hurricane leopards cried out. They felt that the little girl in front of them had lost her mind.

How could they establish a temporary contract with such a weak little girl? It was simply impossible.

Yun chujiu smiled at them and took out a thick stack of ice-condensing talismans with her left hand, she took out a thick stack of explosive talismans with her right hand. "Tell me, I would rather die a few times. Can I kill you with these things? "Besides, don't you want to wander around other areas? Don't you want to leave more marks in your short lives?"

Yun chujiu took out some roasted meat and threw it to the five of them. "As long as you are obedient, I promise to make your short lives colorful. Do you want to be blown to pieces or do you want to play with me?"

The five golden spotted hurricane leopards made a choice easily. Only a fool would play a game of killing with this little girl. They wanted to wander around and see the world!

After Yun Chujiu established a temporary contract with the five golden spotted hurricane leopards, she kept the five into her spirit beast bag. The five golden spotted hurricane leopards were so angry that they wanted to bang their heads against the wall. Where were they when they agreed to go for a stroll? Where were they when they agreed to see the world? Liar! Big Liar!
