

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2593

The person who asked the question was rendered speechless by a certain Jiu's rebuke. Indeed, the rules did not forbid them from going to other areas.

Thus, everyone could only express their dissatisfaction with angry looks. Of course, there was also some unexplainable jealousy in this dissatisfaction.

In another square, a few elders gathered together to discuss whether Yun Chujiu and the other three could pass the test.

An elder said, "Not only did Yun chujiu take advantage of the situation, she also took advantage of the loopholes in the rules and disrupted the order of the test. Such a person can not be admitted."

"That makes sense. The other three people only managed to kill five demonic beasts with Yun Chujiu's help. They can not be considered to have passed."

Elder Yuwen curled his lips and said, "Alright, Alright! What's the point of saying so much? I'm just asking you, did the little girl break the rules? If she didn't break the rules, why did she cancel her test results?"

"If you want to blame someone, it's because the rules you set aren't perfect. If you had said in advance that you weren't allowed to wander around, wouldn't the little girl have obediently passed the test?"

Elder Yuwen usually had a mischievous personality and had a fiery temper. Although the few elders didn't agree with what he said, they didn't dare to openly go against him. Moreover, he was in charge of the third round of the test.

Hence, everyone did not say anything and tacitly agreed with elder Yuwen's opinion.

As for Yun Chujiu, she was not worried at all. If the primordial chaos sect really wanted to cancel their results, she was prepared to make a big fuss. No matter what, she had connections! Master Baili had eaten her coral fruit. Could it be that he ate it for free?

Finally, four hours later, the five thousand participants were full. The rest of the participants were eliminated.

After three rounds of testing, everyone was exhausted physically and mentally, and they were not confident about the upcoming test.

The Primordial Chaos Sect's test was very abnormal. It was not a fixed number of rounds, but the final goal was to select 500 disciples. Therefore, there was probably still some trouble.

Just as everyone was feeling uneasy, the voice that had notified them earlier said, "Congratulations on passing the three rounds of testing. Now, prepare for the fourth round of testing!"

Yun chujiu heard the sound of gnashing teeth from the voice. She understood a little. It was probably because she had messed up the third round of the test, so she became angry out of embarrassment.

A white light flashed in front of her eyes. When Yun Chujiu regained her sight, she realized that there were several mines that were more than a hundred feet tall in front of her.

Each mountain had a number and a name. Yun Chujiu's number and name were marked on the mines in front of her.

Yun Chujiu touched her chin. What was going on? Were they supposed to mine? Was the Hun Yuan sect so stingy that they treated these candidates as laborers?

Just as Yun Chujiu's thoughts were running wild., she heard the person from before gloating, "Your mission is to finish mining the mine in front of you and pass the test for the top 3,000. In addition, you are not allowed to use talismans. Those who use talismans will be eliminated immediately."

F * ck!

What kind of joke was this? !

Although the mine was not big, if they were to rely on manual mining, they would not be able to finish it in less than a month. were they planning to tire them to death?

At this time, several pickaxes for mining appeared out of thin air on the ground. The person continued, "Don't think that just mining is enough! There are more surprises waiting for you. I wish you good luck!"

Yun chujiu pursed her lips. Only a fool would obediently mine. Even if she did not use the talisman, there must be a faster way. There was no rush. She would sleep first.
