

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2600

Everyone was so angry that they were twitching. They wanted to do business with the ant queen, but how could they have so many defensive spirit tools to get close to the ant queen?

Besides, not everyone had so many talismans to protect themselves, okay?

After Yun Chujiu and the other three were teleported to the square, the disciples on duty were dumbfounded. Why did these four come out so early again? Wasn't there still a few days left?

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes and walked to the side of a disciple on duty. "Senior brother, I wonder if barbecued meat is forbidden in this square?"

The disciple on duty scratched his head and said, "There's no explicit rule that barbecued meat is not allowed here. However, no one has ever barbecued meat here."

"It's good as long as there's no written rule. It's hard enough for you to be on duty all day. I'll treat you to barbecued meat later!" Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

The disciples on duty were very surprised. They didn't expect Yun chujiu to do this. The disciples who were sent here to be on duty were basically not favored. Because it was very boring to be on duty here, they didn't have the chance to go to the other square to watch the show.

Therefore, even though it was just a small effort from Yun Chujiu, they felt a trace of warmth in their hearts.

After eating a few barbecued meat, Yun chujiu naturally became familiar with these disciples on guard duty. They chatted about all sorts of things, and she managed to grasp most of the gossip about the primordial chaos sect.

For example, who had a good relationship with whom, which peak master was the kindest, which peak master was the most stingy, and so on. Of course, she also found out that the entire process of their test had been seen as a prank!

Yun Chujiu's expression did not change, but she cursed in her heart. Damn it, they actually played them as a monkey, we'll see!

After a full five days, the candidates were sent out one after another.

When those people saw Yun Chujiu, they all glared at her angrily, but no one dared to provoke her. Firstly, they were afraid that it would affect the test, and secondly, they were afraid that Yun Chujiu would do something bad again.

The disciples on duty could not help but wonder, are these contestants sick? The little girl was so kind. She would roast meat for them and even give them spirit fruits and pastries when she was free. They must be jealous that the little girl's results were better than theirs. She was really petty.

Finally, three thousand people gathered in the square. Everyone knew that the fifth round of the test was about to begin. Everyone was very nervous. They did not know what was waiting for them in the fifth round of the test. However, one thing was certain..., it would definitely be even more abnormal than the fourth round of the test.

A certain Jiu was the only one with a face full of anticipation. Was this abnormal test of the primordial chaos sect really fun? ! Moreover, it could earn money! Come on, come on. Ten more rounds of this test would not be too much!

At this moment, the voice from before sounded again. "Congratulations on passing the fourth round of the test. The fifth round of the test is a team test. Each team has seven people. Now, you guys can start forming teams!"

Yun chujiu frowned. She had bet a hundred small dried fish that the tester was targeting the four of them. Three thousand people, seven people in a team. In the end, there would be four people left. Then, they would have three less helpers than the others. It was really bad!

As expected, when everyone was free to form teams, no one was willing to team up with Yun Chujiu and the other four.

Although Yun Chujiu had a lot of bad ideas, her spiritual power was too low. Moreover, the fifth round of the test had already stated that talismans were not allowed to be used, so Yun Chujiu had even less of an advantage.

In the end, they were all seven fairies, and only Yun chujiu and the others were the four great vajra.
